Notice is hereby given, that all persons indebted to or having any claims or demands upon the estate and effects of the Honourable Sir John Roys, deceased, late one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Bengal, are requested forthwith to send an account of their debts and demands to William Wilcock, of Halifax, in the County of York, Attorney at Law, Agent to the sole Executrix and Residuary Legatee in England, of the said Sir John Roys.

If the Relations or Next of Kin of Michael, otherwise Michael Manin Clarke, otherwise Clark, late of the Parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, in the County of Middlesex, and an out-pensioner of Chelsea Hospital, deceased, will apply to Mr. Tobbs, Proctor, in Doctor's-Commons, they will hear of some to their advantage.

LEGATEES OF JAMES MEYRICK, Esq.

Whereas Henry Creed, Esq. formerly Major of the 83d Regiment of Foot, did by his will, dated in November 1786, give to the residuary Legatee or Legatees named in the will of James Meyrick, Esq. formerly Agent to the 83d Regiment of Foot, 150l. to be paid twelve months after the decease of his (the Major's) widow, who died in April last.—Notice is hereby given, that if any person claiming to be such residuary Legatee, if living, or his personal representative, will produce the probate of the will of the said James Meyrick, and make out his title to such legacy, to Mr. Frederick William Oates, Solicitor, in Leeds, on or before the 22d day of April next, he may receive the said sum of 150l.

In His Majesty's Court of Civil Pleas at Gibraltar.

Whereas by a Decree of the said Court, bearing date the 14th day of May 1819, made in a Cause Parents and Solomons and others, Creditors of the late Alexander Ross, deceased, Plaintiffs, and Alexander Farquhar, Defendant, it was ordered that the said Defendant should bring into, and deposit in, the Registry of the said Court of Civil Pleas, the sum of 22,213 hard dollars, 8 reals, and 3 quarts, together with all books, papers, and other documents in his possession, relative to the said Alexander Ross, deceased, or his estate, subject to the Court's further Order in the premises; and for the purpose of ascertaining amongst whom the said sum of 22,213 hard dollars, 8 reals, and 3 quarts, should be divided, or to whom the same should be paid, it was further ordered, that upon payment thereof into the Registry as before directed, the Registrar of the Court should forthwith give notice in the Gibraltar Chronicle, and continue the same for six successive months, directing all persons claiming, or pretending to claim, under the said Alexander Ross, deceased, or his estate, or otherwise howsoever in the premises, forthwith to give in an account upon oath of their claims into the Registry; such claims to set forth the particulars of their respective demands, and when, and how, and upon what account, the same originated and claimed, with all the circumstances relative thereto, and that a similar notice should be inserted in the London Gazette with as little delay as possible.

And whereas the said defendant interposed an appeal from the said Decree to the Court of Appeals, which Court, by its sentence in the same Cause, under date the 2d day of August last, reduced the sum so ordered by the Decree of the Court of Civil Pleas to be brought into the Registry.

First—By the sum of 389 current dollars, 2 reals, and 2 quarts, being the amount of the payment stated to have been made by Alexander Farquhar to James Cutforth, and to have been omitted by him, the said Defendant, in his account;

Secondly—By the amount of the account of further expenses of the said Alexander Farquhar touching this money, since the last allowance thereof in his account given into the Civil Court in 1817, such amount of expenses to be given into the Court of Civil Pleas upon oath, when the balance is paid in,—and

Thirdly—By the amount of the costs of this suit, and of the appeal, which costs this Court was of opinion should be paid out of, and deducted from, the balance in the Defendant's hands, before it was so paid in.

And whereas the said Defendant hath, in pursuance of the said Decrees, brought into, and deposited in, the Registry of the Court of Civil Pleas, the sum of 21,504 hard dollars, 2 reals, and 5 quarts, together with all books, papers, and other documents in his possession, relative to the said Alexander Ross, deceased, or his estate, to await its further Order in the premises, in pursuance of its Decree aforesaid.

Notice is, therefore, hereby given, to all persons claiming, or pretending to claim, under the said Alexander Ross, deceased, or his estate, or otherwise howsoever, to bring into, and deposit, the Registry of the said Court of Civil Pleas, within six months from the date hereof, an account upon oath of all their claims: such claims to set forth the particulars of their respective demands, and when, and how, and upon what account the same originated and are claimed, with all the circumstances relative thereto, preparatory to the further Order of the Court in the premises.
