

tent, and for inculcating wild, extravagant and ill-founded notions respecting the existing institutions of the British Empire.

Whilst we rely upon the energy and wisdom of Parliament for adopting measures fitted to meet the exigency of the times, we beg to assure your Royal Highness that by our example and influence we shall endeavour to give support to lawful authority, and to counteract the designs of those wicked and disaffected men, whose efforts are directed to the subversion of the Constitutional Establishments of our country.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the meeting, at Hamilton, the 30th day of November 1819 years,

B. Stenton, Preses.

[Transmitted by Lord Belhaven and Stenton, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 20th of November 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Orders of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the twenty-eighth May and the twelfth July last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever, (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties, inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

Commissions in the Dumbartonshire Troop of Yeomanry Cavalry, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Dumbarton.

Cornet John Buchanan, jun. to be Lieutenant. Dated 13th November 1819.

John Horrocks, Gent. to be Cornet, vice Buchanan. Dated as above.

Admiralty-Office, November 29, 1819.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, having been pleased, by His Royal Proclamation of the 20th instant, to direct that passes of a new form should be issued to all His Majesty's subjects trading in the way of the cruizers belonging to the Governments on the Coast of Barbary; my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby give notice, that, in pursuance of the aforesaid Proclamation; passes of a new form will be ready to be issued at the Custom-House, in London, on Saturday the 1st day of January next, to such persons as shall apply for them; and at His Majesty's Foreign Colonies and Plantations, as soon after that period as conveniently may be; but that passes of the old form will continue to be issued at this Office, until the 31st of December next. J. W. Croker.

Admiralty-Office, December 11, 1819.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

Notice is hereby given, that all widows who receive pensions from the charity established for the relief of the widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, must send or bring to this Office, between the 20th and 31st of this month, the affidavit required by the rules of the charity, in order to their being inserted on the
