

the Honourable the Court aforesaid, by Charles Kyte, Trustee of Plantation Kortheraad, the property of the late J. J. De Mey, Esq. of this Colony, deceased, the minors H. A. Krieger and C. S. J. De Mey, children of his former wife, Henrietta Buse, and the minors E. B. De Mey and F. D. De Mey, children by his late wife, Elizabeth Bartlett Bussell.

The undersigned, Trustee aforesaid, will sell at public vendue, on Friday the 18th day of February 1820, on the premises, the aforesaid Coffee Plantation Kortheraad, cum annex, together with the slaves thereunto attached, containing 1,000 acres more or less; the cultivation consists of 80,000 bearing coffee-trees, and 50 acres in plantains and ground provisions, the remainder uncultivated, being most excellent land for either coffee, canes, or provisions.

This plantation is most eligibly situated on the east bank of the River Berbice, between the Sugar Plantation, Enfield, and Coffee Plantation, Deutichen, about seven miles distant from New Amsterdam, to which there is an excellent road the whole way, with the advantage of water carriage, for the produce and stores, and is in every respect well adapted for the cultivation of canes, and worth the attention of gentlemen speculating, who have the means of extending the cultivation either as a coffee or sugar estate.

The buildings consist of a large coffee logie, built of the best materials, 120 feet long, 28 broad, with 12 feet galleries on each side; a mill-house, washing cistern, tiled drogeries, for drying and other apparatus for the manufacture of coffee, with hospital, negroe-houses, &c. &c.

The logie, mill-house, &c. might at a small expence be converted into buildings for the manufacture of sugar.

The negroes are 126 in number, viz. 53 men, 29 women, 23 boys, 21 girls, and are an improving gang.

Terms of payment as follow, in three equal instalments of 12, 18, and 24 months from the day of sale, with interest, at the rate of 8 per Cent. per annum on the capital due at the payment of each instalment.

Further particulars may be known on application to the subscriber.

CHARLES KYTE.
