

NOTICE TO THOMAS PARROTT.

Whereas Michael Parrott, late of Woodham, in the Parish of Waddesdon, in the County of Bucks, Dairyman (who died on the 6th day of August 1816), did by his will, and a codicil thereto, direct a sum of 500l. to be set apart for his son, Thomas Parrott, if he should appear and claim the same before the end of five years, to be computed from the day of his (the said Michael Parrott's) decease, and bequeathed the same to other persons, in case the said Thomas Parrott should not appear and make such claim within that time; and whereas the said Thomas Parrott went abroad many years since, and is supposed to have sailed from the port of Liverpool, but not having been heard of by his family for upwards of twenty years last past, he is supposed to have died many years since:—Notice is therefore hereby given of the aforesaid bequest, for the benefit of the said Thomas Parrott, and of the death of the said testator; and that if the said Thomas Parrott do not, within the said five years, make his appearance and claim the said legacy, by application to John Reeves, of Dorton, in the County of Bucks, Farmer, and William Parrott, of Wootton-Underwood, in the same County, Farmer, the acting Trustees and Executors named in the said will the same legacy and interest will, at the expiration thereof, be paid and applied agreeably to the other directions contained in the will of the said testator.

Any person who can give to either of the said Trustees and Executors, or to Mr. Rose, Solicitor, Aylesbury, Bucks, correct information of the place and time of the death of the said Thomas Parrott, and enable them to procure authentic documents to procure the same, will be thankfully rewarded for their trouble.

N. B. The said Thomas Parrott is said to have gone to Saint Catherine's, Jamaica, and to have died there during the prevalence of a fever in 1799, or 1800.

Summons by Edict.

By virtue of authority received from His Honour Henry Beard, Esq. President of the Honourable the Courts of Criminal and Civil Justice of the Colony Berbice, dated 14th April 1820; I, the undersigned, at the instance of W. Reynolds, in quality as Curator to the estate of Robert Proctor, deceased, do hereby, for the first time, summon, by edict all known and unknown creditors and claimants against the estate of Robert Proctor, deceased, to appear at the bar of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their Session, which will be held on the 16th October 1820, and following Sessions, for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly substantiated and in due form and time against the above-mentioned estate; whereas, in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal, will be proceeded against the non-appears according to law.

This summons by edict, published as customary.—Berbice, 14th day of April 1820.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

To be sold by auction, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against William Jackson Monkhouse, of the Town of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Iron and Tin-Merchant, at the Waterloo Hotel, in Liverpool aforesaid, on Tuesday the 25th day of July instant, between the hours of Twelve o'Clock at Noon and Three o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same day;

An undivided moiety of a piece of ground with the buildings thereon erected, known by the name of the Albion Mills, and lately used as iron mills, situated on the west side of Comus-Street, in the Town of Liverpool, with the well on the north side of the passage there, with the exclusive privilege of drawing water thereout, and the free use of the said passage on the south side of the said premises, extending from Comus-Street to Albion-Mill-Place. And at the same time and place will be sold by the consent of the proprietors and mortgagee thereof, the remaining undivided moiety of the same ground and premises.

For further particulars enquire of Messrs. Rowland and Young, Solicitors, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields; Messrs. Collingridge and Potter, Solicitors, Coleman-Street, London; and Mr. George Row, Solicitor, Wood-Street, Liverpool.

B 2

To be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain Causes, intitled Jervoise against Clarke, and Grey against Jervoise, with the approbation of William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court,

A very extensive estate, comprising the Manor of Chalton and Fiveheads. The advowson of the valuable rectories of Chalton, Clanfield, and Blendworth. The advowson of the vicarage of Catherington, together with divers farms and lands, containing together upwards of 6400A. and the Great Tithes of about 600A. of land, the whole of which property is situate within the several Parishes of Chalton, Clanfield, Blendworth, and Catherington, in the County of Hants, four miles from Havant, ten miles from Portsmouth, ten miles from Chichester, and six miles from Petersfield.

Printed particulars whereof may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Mr. William Le Blanc, New Bridge-Street, London; Mr. Phillips, Norfolk-Street, Strand; Messrs. Hicks and Brackenridge, Bartlett's-Buildings, London, and other places, which together with the time and sale will hereafter be duly advertised.

To be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain Causes of Thorne against Palmer and Coulson against Palmer, with the approbation of William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the King's Head Inn, at Rochford, in the County of Essex, on Thursday the 7th of September 1820, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, in one lot, subject to a mortgage of 3000l. thereon;

A certain freehold estate, situate at Ashington and Little Stanbridge, near Rochford aforesaid, consisting of a farmhouse and outbuildings, and 120A. of land (more or less; also a freehold cottage in the said Parish of Ashington, now or late in the occupation of Thomas Barker, and a freehold brick built messuage, and 5A. of meadow land, situate in Bray's-Lane, Little Stanbridge, all of which said several estates and premises are held by tenants from year to year.

The estate may be viewed by leave of the tenants, and printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Dixon and Son, Solicitors, No. 7, Gray's-Inn-Square; of Messrs. Stevens and Wood, Solicitors, Little Saint Thomas the Apostle, London; of Mr. Stevens, Solicitor, No. 1, New-Inn, London; of Messrs. Sparling and Wittey, Solicitors, Colechester; at the Saracen's Head Inn, Cuelmsford; and at the King's Head Inn, Rochford aforesaid.

To be peremptorily re-sold, pursuant to an order of the High Court of Chancery made in a cause of Bacon against Bacon, before John Springett Harvey, Esq., one of the Masters of the said Court, in the Publick Sale Room of the Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on the 4th day of August next, between the hours of Twelve and One:

A freehold estate (with the exception of about one acre which is copyhold of the Manor of Finchley,) situate in the several Parishes of Friern Barnet and Finchley, in the County of Middlesex, part of the estate of John Bacon deceased, consisting of a dwelling house, offices and garden and about 55 acres of land chiefly meadow land, in the occupation of Mr. Jellicoe, and comprised in Lot No. 8, of the particular under which the estates of the said John Bacon were before offered for sale.

Particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings; of Messrs. White and Bostock, George-Street, Mansion-House; the Queen's Head Inn, Finchley Church; the Red Lion Inn, Barnet; the King's Head Inn, Watford; and the Angel Inn, at Edmonton; and the estate may be viewed on application to the tenant.

Saturday the 1st day of July in the first year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, 1820, between Ann O'Brien, Plaintiff, Mary Ann Riley, Marcus Crosbie the younger, and Harriet his wife and others, Defendants.

UPON the humble petition of the plaintiff this day preferred unto the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, for the reasons therein, and in the affidavit therein also mentioned contained, it is ordered, that Mary Ann Riley, Marcus Crosbie the younger, and Harriet his wife, do appear to the plaintiff's bill, on or before the 7th day of November next.