Heralds-College, August 8, 1820.

The Deputy Earl Marshal's Order for a General Mourning for Her late Royal Highness the Duchess of York.

IN pursuance of His Majesty's commands, these are to give public notice, that it is expected upon the present melancholy occasion of the death of Her late Royal Highness Frederica-Charlotte-Ulrica-Catherine, Consort of His Royal Highness Frederick Duke of York and of Albany, that all persons do put themselves into decent mourning; the said mourning to begin on Sunday next the 13th instant.

HENRY HOWARD MOLYNEUX-HOWARD,
Deputy Earl Marshal.

Horse-Guards, August 8, 1820.

HIS Majesty does not require that the Officers of the Army should wear any other mourning on the present melancholy occasion, than a black crape round their left arms with their uniforms.

By command of His Royal Highness the Commander in Chief,

H. Torrens, Adjutant-General.

Admiralty-Office, August 8, 1820.

HIS Majesty does not require that the Officers of the Fleet or Royal Marines should wear any other mourning on the present melancholy occasion, than a black crape round their left arms with their uniforms.

John Barrow.
