SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The above reward to be paid on conviction by Messrs. Pownall and Fairthorne, Solicitors, 36, Old Jewry, London.

Whitehall, August 2, 1820.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of the 11th ultimo, the dwelling-house of Augustus Brackenbury, of Llanrhystid, in the county of Cardigan, Esq. was attacked by a body of men armed with fire arms, who after seizing upon the guns belonging to the said Augustus Brackenbury and those of his servants, they set fire to the house and materials in and about the same, which were entirely destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said house), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The above reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. James Hughes, Solicitor, Abenystwyth.

Whitehall, August 12, 1820.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to His Majesty, that, in the evening of Friday the 4th instant, an outrageous assault was committed on a party of the coast blockade at Folkestone, by a riotous mob, who rescued from their custody a smuggler who had been apprehended and lodged in the watch-house there; and that William Simpson, quartermaster, was feloniously shot by a pistol fired by one of the mob, and now lies in a dangerous state from the effects of his wound;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said pistol), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to any person or persons (except as before excepted), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be thereof convicted.—Such reward to be paid on the conviction of the offender or offenders by Charles Bicknell, Esq. Solicitor for the affairs of the Admiralty.

Whitehall, September 2, 1820.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First, Second, and Third, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any artificer in wool, iron, steel, brass, or other metal, clock-maker, watch-maker, or any other artificer of Great Britain, to go into foreign countries out of the King's dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon indictment or information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first offence, and shall be imprisoned three months, and till the fine be paid. And if any person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the discretion of the Court, and imprisoned twelve months, and till the fine be paid.

If any of the King's subjects, being such artificers, shall go into any country out of His Majesty's dominions, to exercise or teach the said trades to foreigners; and if any of the King's subjects in any such foreign country, exercising any of the said trades, shall not return into this realm within six months after warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the country where such artificers shall be, or by any person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this realm; such persons
