Frederick Pragnell, Gent. to be Lieutenant, vice Larpent. Dated 13th October 1820.

Whitehall, October 31, 1820.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Charles-Harward Butler, Esq. (commonly called the Honourable Charles-Harward Butler), representative in Parliament for the county of Kilkenny, his royal licence and authority that, in compliance with the last will and testament of his brother the Most Honourable Walter Marquess of Ormonde, deceased, he and his children John Butler, Sarah Butler, and Henry Butler may assume, and from henceforth use, the surname of Clarke, in addition to and after their family surname of Butler; and also bear the arms of the family of Clarke, of Sutton and Somersall, in the county of Derby, quarterly, in the first quarter with those of Butler; and that the said surname and arms, of Clarke may also be borne in like manner by the future issue of the said Charles-Harward Butler; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise His Majesty's said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that this His Majesty's concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, November 16, 1820.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Michael Comport, of Rochford, in the county of Essex, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, November 3, 1820.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on Monday night the 30th of October last, at Belper, in the county of Derby, three stacks of cotton wool, surrounded with straw, belonging to Messrs. William, George, and Joseph Strutt, of Derby, were set on fire, and nearly one thousand five hundred bags of cotton wool were burnt; and there is strong reason to believe, that the fire was the malicious act of some person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased to promise His
