NOTICE is hereby given, that a dividend of the estate and effects of Hills Towns, late of No. 2, Harrison's-Court, Saint George in the East, in the County of Middlesex, Coal and Provision Dealer, lately discharged from White-Cross-Street Prison, will be paid on the 30th day of January next to the Creditors of the said Hills Towns, whose debts are expressed in his schedule, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon of the same day, at the Office of Mr. FitzGerald, No. 2, Lawrence Pountney-Hill, in the City of London.

GEORGE PAULING'S INSOLVENCY.

A MEETING of the Creditors of George Pauling, formerly of Shipton-under-Whichwood, in the County of Oxford, Victualler and Fellmonger, who was discharged from the Fleet Prison, in the year 1818, by virtue of an Act of Parliament, passed in the 53d year of the reign of His late Majesty, King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," will be holden at the Office of Messrs. Wilkins and Kendall, Bourton-on-the-Water, Gloucestershire, on Friday the 19th day of January 1821, for the purpose of examining the Assignees' accounts, and making a dividend of the said Insolvent's estate and effects; when and where his Creditors are requested to attend prepared to verify their demands upon the estate by affidavit. And notice is hereby given, that at such meeting the Creditors will be required to consider and determine whether any and what steps shall be taken to sell the Insolvent's interest, in right of his wife, in an undivided moiety of three freehold messuages and premises, at Stow-on-the-Wold Gloucestershire, in the occupation of Mr. John Johnson and others, subject to the several mortgages and other incumbrances affecting the same; or to relinquish all claim to the said premises, and authorise the Assignee of the said estate to join the said Insolvent and his wife, without receiving any valuable consideration for so doing, in a conveyance of the same premises, to any person or persons willing to purchase them; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors of Joseph Brett, formerly of Ball's-Pond-Road, near Islington, and late of Arlington-Street, Cambden-Town, in the County of Middlesex, Clerk, who in August 1811 took the benefit of an Act, passed in the 51st year of the reign of His late Majesty, King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the Relief of certain Insolvent Debtors in England," are required to take notice that a final meeting having been hold at the sign of the White Hart, in Holborn, in the County of Middlesex, on Wednesday the 6th day of December instant, at which several persons, who at a previous meeting had claimed to be Creditors of the said Insolvent, did not attend or offer any proof of their debts, and the balance of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent in the hands of the Assignee thereof, being more than sufficient to pay the debts proved against his estate at such final meeting in full, the said Assignee will immediately after the expiration of thirty days from the time of this advertisement pay and discharge out of such balance each and every of the debts so proved at such final meeting, unless any other person or persons being or claiming to be a Creditor or Creditors of the said Insolvent, shall previously make out the justice and identity of his, her, or their debt or debts, in the manner directed by the said Act, and send the same to Messrs. Taylor and Hales, of the City of Norwich, Solicitors for the said Assignee, or to Mr. Lythgoe, 21, Thavies-Inn, Holborn, their Agent.
