SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1821.

Whitehall, February 24, 1821.

THE King has been pleased to command that, in the present and in all future years, His Majesty's Birth-day shall be, in all respects, observed and kept on the 23d day of April; excepting when that day shall fall on Sunday, in which case the same is to be observed and kept on the following day.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His late Majesty King George the Third, was pleased by His Royal Proclamations, bearing date the first day of July and the tenth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, to ordain, declare, and command, that certain pieces of gold coin therein described, called sovereigns and half sovereigns, should pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and that every such sovereign should weigh not less than five penny weights, two grains and three quarters, and that every such half sovereign should weigh not less than two penny weights, thirteen grains and one quarter; and whereas the allowance made for reasonable wear by the said Proclamations has been found by experience to be too small for general practice: We taking the same into consideration are pleased, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that, from and after the date hereof, every gold sovereign not weighing less than five penny weights, two grains and a half, and every gold half sovereign not weighing less than two penny weights, thirteen grains and one eighth, shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; every such sovereign as of the value of twenty shillings; and every such half sovereign as of the value of ten shillings, in all payments whatsoever.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the sixth day of February one thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

Act of the Fourteenth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, Cap. 70, Sect. 7.

AND be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that the Tellers in the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Great Britain, and all receivers, collectors, and other officers of all His Majesty's revenues whatsoever, and all other persons whatsoever, are hereby authorised and required to cut, break, or deface, or cause to be cut, broken, or defaced, every piece of gold coin of this realm that shall be tendered to them, or any of them, in payment, after such time and times as any such piece of gold coin shall, by virtue of any Proclamation of His Majesty in Council, be declared not to be allowed to pass in any payment whatsoever, any law or statute to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding, and the person tendering the same shall bear the loss; but if any such piece so cut, broken or defaced, shall be of due weight, and appear to be lawful money, the person that cut, broke, or defaced the same shall, and is hereby required to take and receive the same at the rate it was coined for; and if any questions or disputes shall arise, whether the piece so cut be lawful coin, within the intent and meaning of His Majesty's Proclamations, it shall be heard and finally determined by the mayor, bailiff or bailiffs, or other chief officer of any city or town corporate where such tender shall be made; and if such tenders shall be made out of any city or town corporate, then by some justice of the peace of the county inhabiting or being near the place where such tender shall be made; and the said mayor or other chief officer and justice of the peace shall have full power and authority to administer an oath, as he shall see convenient, to any person for determining any questions relating to the weight and lawful currency of the said piece of coin.

Act of the Fourteenth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, Cap. 92, Sect. 4.

AND be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that from and after the thirty-first day of December one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, all weights to be made use of for weighing the said gold and silver coin, shall be regulated and ascertained by the duplicates or copies of the said standard weights of a guinea, of a shilling, and of the parts and multiples thereof respectively, lodged in the custody of the officer before mentioned (viz. the officer appointed by His Majesty for this purpose, in pursuance of a preceding clause of the said Act), and after having been tried and compared therewith, and found to be just and true, shall, in testimony thereof, be marked by the said officer with a stamp or mark, or stamps or marks, to be approved of by the Master of His Majesty's Mint, which stamps or marks the said officer is hereby directed to provide; and in order that the impression or impressions made thereby may be known to all His Majesty's subjects, the said officer is hereby also directed to publish a description of the same, by advertisement in the London Gazette, three times at least before the said thirty-first day of December one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four; and the said officer is hereby required, upon application made to him, at all seasonable hours, to stamp or mark, in manner aforesaid, all weights to be used for weighing the said gold and silver coin which shall be brought to him for that purpose, and which he shall find to be just and true according to the said duplicates or copies of the standard weights of a guinea and of a shilling, and of the parts and multiples thereof respectively, hereby directed to be lodged in his custody, without fee or reward, and without wilful delay; and from and after the said thirty-first day of December one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, no other weights but such as shall be just and true, according to the weights with and by which they are hereby directed to be compared and ascertained, and shall be marked in manner before mentioned, shall be reputed or accepted in law to be true or of any effect for determining the weight of the gold or silver coin of this realm.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth; one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Clergy, and Gentry of the County of Donegal, assembled at a public meeting of the County, regularly convened, unanimously beg leave to approach your Majesty with renewed assurances of fidelity to your Majesty and your royal House, and of attachment to the glorious Constitution under which these realms have long continued to enjoy invaluable blessings.

Having lately, in the event of your Majesty's accession to the Throne, tendered to your Majesty the heartfelt expressions of our allegiance, we should not now deem it necessary to repeat them, did we not perceive that an active and malignant spirit has been assiduous to disseminate opinions, and to inculcate principles, which, as faithful subjects, we feel it to be our bounden duty to reprobate and to resist.

Convinced as we are that, under the civil and religious institutions of our country, the subjects of these realms may hope to enjoy as much of political freedom and social happiness as belongs to the condition of men; we cannot behold without the deepest alarm, the exertions which for some time back have been unceasingly made in a part of your Majesty's dominions to sap the foundation of civil and religious obligations, to alienate the affections of the people from the Throne, and to bring contempt upon the Constituted Authorities of the land.

In opposition then to the machinations which would work such evils, and to the delusions which they have unhappily effected, we feel ourselves irresistibly impelled to declare to your Majesty our unalterable determination to abide resolutely by these principles of sound religion and national liberty, under which these nations have hitherto flourished, to exert all the means in our power to support the rights of the Throne, to defend the sanctity of the Altar, to maintain the authority of the Laws, and to preserve inviolate the great bulwarks of our Constitution in Church and State.

We trust that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to accept this tribute of our loyalty; at the same time we earnestly implore the Divine Goodness to grant your Majesty a long and prosperous reign over a loyal and united people; enabling your Majesty after the example of your venerable parents to continue throughout the just dignity of the Crown with the best interests of the people.

It was pleasing to observe, that at no former period did the County of Donegal ever evince more zeal and loyalty to the King, than on this occasion; and it would appear that the turbulent spirit and factious disposition, which have shewn themselves in other parts of His Majesty's empire, have acted as a strong stimulus to produce this burst of loyalty from the inhabitants of this extensive and populous county: we trust that the loyalty and unanimity which have been evinced by the County of Donegal on the present occasion, will be followed up by the other counties of Ireland which have not as yet addressed His Majesty

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Clergy, Magistrates, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Newry and its Vicinity.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, most respectfully approach the Throne, under a firm conviction, that it is the duty of every Irishman, who loves his King and his country, to express, at this eventful period, his attachment to the British Constitution, and his determination to transmit it unimpaired to posterity as an inestimable boon of Providence to those favoured isles.

We contemplate, with well founded national pride, the tranquillity and loyalty of Ireland, which strongly evince a prevalent spirit of true patriotism, and a firm reliance on the wisdom and the justice of the legislature. We, however, in common with every man who holds his religion and his country in due estimation, view with abhorrence the effects of that systematic insubordination and irreligion, which the active emissaries of sedition and impiety have, with deplorable success, diffused through a certain portion of the English community; yet we fear not the issue, confident that truth will ultimately prevail; and aware that the British Constitution possesses innate principle of vitality, which preserves it in full vigour from age to age, and thus enables it to resist and triumph over the machinations of internal factions and the violence of external force.

Impressed with sentiments of unalterable attachment to your Majesty, your Crown and dignity, and to the British Constitution, and supplicating Heaven that your Majesty's reign may be long, prosperous and happy, we beg leave to subscribe ourselves your faithful and loyal subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Borough of Downpatrick and its Vicinity, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the assurance of our fidelity and allegiance which, in the present tranquil state of this country, we should have felt it unnecessary to do, were it not for the wild revolutionary spirit so industriously propagated in other parts of the empire.

We have for some time, with the most painful anxiety, witnessed the artful and malicious efforts which have been made by seditious and blasphemous publications, by misrepresentations of truth, and by insidious appeals to the feelings of a deluded populace, to promote the progress of a spirit tending to the subversion of all lawful Government, and of those venerable institutions under which the people of those realms have so long been blest beyond all the other nations of the world.

In such circumstances we consider it the indispensable duty of all friends to our invaluable Constitution, and to the welfare of society, to come forward in the most open, manly, and decided manner to oppose their voice and their exertions to the propagation of principles so pernicious; and it is this consideration which induces us at this time to repeat to your Majesty the avowal of our warm attachment to your Majesty's Person, our unshaken adherence to the principles of our glorious Constitution, and our fixed determination, at whatever risk, to maintain and support them to the utmost of our power.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Principal Inhabitants of the Towns of Antrim, Randalstown, Crumlin, and Vicinity's.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, humbly beg leave to offer this the assurance of our inviolable attachment to your Majesty's Person.

While foreign nations are manifesting the greatest respect for the Laws and Constitution of these Realms, and holding them forth as the standard most worthy of their imitation, we lament to notice the attempts made by some classes of your Majesty's subjects in the sister kingdom to lessen the respect for those Laws, and ultimately to subvert the established Constitution of the country.

It is with great satisfaction we can assure your Majesty that this part of your Majesty's dominions remains firm in its attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We, therefore, humbly beg that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to accept this the expression of our unalterable loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person, your illustrious House, and the unrivalled Constitution of these realms, and we humbly hope that under Providence your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous reign, and that this empire may continue to maintain that pre-eminence among nations which it has attained since your Majesty assumed the executive power.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Boroughmaster, Burgesses, Magistrates, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Boyle, in the County of Roscommon and its Vicinity, beg leave to approach the Throne, to assure your Majesty of our attachment and fidelity.

Observing at present in the sister kingdom, a spirit obnoxious to repose, a spirit that seeks to agitate the public mind by deception and misrepresentation, a spirit that is sedulous to array irreligion and disaffection against Christian truth and social order; we deem it a duty to declare our abhorrence of such devices, and our determination of opposing as much as in us lies, any league against your Majesty's Crown and dignity, of whatever is base and false and profligate, and thus to shew our love to the happy Constitution under which we live, and our attachment and gratitude to your Majesty, springing from the deep feeling we have of the manifold blessings derived from the Government of your Majesty and of your illustrious House.

Henry Fry, Boroughmaster.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the undersigned, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the inhabitants of the Town of Ballymena, in the County of Antrim, in Ireland, and its vicinity, humbly beg leave thus to express the assurances of our unshaken fidelity and attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and to that Constitution, the boast of the world, which has been so gloriously defended and supported by your Majesty and your illustrious Ancestors, and to assure your Majesty that we will, to the utmost of our power, support your Majesty in protecting our glorious Constitution in Church and State, and the Laws and Statutes of the land, against every vile and base attempt that may be made against them, either by evil designing men or by an irreligious and licentious press, and that we shall at all times be ready to adopt and carry into effect the most prompt measures in our power to protect the laws and peace of this country from infringement and outrage.

[Transmitted by the Honourable Colonel O'Neill, M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of Peace, and other Heritors of the County of Cromarty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of Peace, and other Heritors of the County of Cromarty, duly assembled in public meeting, beg leave again to approach your Majesty's Throne, in order to express our unaltered and unalterable fidelity and devotion to your Majesty's Person, and ardent attachment and veneration for the Constitution of these Kingdoms.

Surrounded, as we rejoice to say we are, by a well-disposed, religious, and loyal population, and although situated in a distant portion of your Majesty's dominions, we still cannot refrain from expressing our utter detestation of the manifestly impious and treasonable designs of some turbulent men; being well and thoroughly convinced that, if unsuppressed, not only we but every part of the empire, however distant, would share alike the bitter fruits of their truly baneful doctrines.

That the eyes of these deluded men may be opened; that sound principles may ever prevail among all classes of your Majesty's subjects; and that your Majesty may long and happily reign over a free and loyal people, is our truly earnest and affectionate prayer.

Signed in our name, presence, and appointment, at Cromarty, the 5th day of February 1821
years, by Donald Mackenzie, Preses.

[Transmitted by R. B. Oneas Macleod, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Ministers of the Presbytery of Lauder, convened at Lauder on this 6th day of February 1821, beg leave to approach the Throne, and to renew our expressions of firm and affectionate attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to our most excellent Constitution in Church and State.

While we duly appreciate the great worth of our civil and religious privileges, and of our many private and public blessings, we are, at the same time, truly sensible of the high value of that protection and security invariably afforded to us, and to all our fellow-subjects, in the free exercise of these privileges, and the full enjoyment of these blessings under your Majesty's auspicious Government, and that of your Royal Predecessors of the august House of Brunswick.

Convinced as we are that our Religion, our Liberty and Laws, with every thing dear to us as men, and as Christians, cannot be preserved without a due subordination to the Powers that be; it is therefore with sincere abhorrence and strong indignation that we reprobate those base and insidious arts that for some time past have been practised by wicked men, to seduce the people of the land from their respectful submission to legal authority, and to excite them to open and daring acts of sedition and insubordination.

Closely connected with this spirit of disaffection to regular Government which at present so much prevails, we have farther to lament the increase of infidelity, irreligion and vice, promoted in no small degree by the blasphemous publications of those ill-hearted persons who, by removing the restraints of religion and virtue on the evil passions of men, wish to dissolve the bonds of social order and to involve the country in all the evils of anarchy and confusion.

To counteract these audacious attempts, and to prevent the calamities they are calculated to produce, we firmly trust that your Majesty's councils will be directed with wisdom and vigour, and, by the blessing of Providence, also with success.

We as the Ministers of that religion which teaches to "fear God and honour the King," pledge ourselves that, to our utmost ability, and as far as our influence extends, we shall endeavour to promote, among the people committed to our charge, a spirit of genuine piety to God and affectionate loyalty to your Majesty, and of dutiful obedience and submission to all who are in authority over us.

That the Almighty may bestow on your Majesty every temporal and every spiritual blessing, and that your reign may be long and prosperous over a free, a virtuous, and loyal people, are our sincere and fervent prayers.

Signed in our name, by our appointment, and in our presence, by J. Brown, Moderator.

[Transmitted by the Moderator.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Inhabitants of Chudleigh and its Neighbourhood, duly sensible of the blessings we enjoy both in Church and State, presume, at this eventful period to approach your Majesty with our assurances of our firm attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

It is with deep concern that we have witnessed the attempts which have of late been made by licentious and unprincipled men to subvert our religion and our laws, to eradicate from the minds of your Majesty's subjects, the principles of our holy faith, and to destroy those blessings which we enjoy under the mild influence of your Majesty's paternal care.

Permit us to assure your Majesty that we view with abhorrence these nefarious efforts, that our utmost endeavours shall be used to counteract them, and to maintain unimpaired the Constitution, both in Church and State, as by Law established.

Borough of Borongbridge.—Right of Election Petition, Notice.

Mercurij, 21^o die Februarij 1821.

Thomas Mortimer the elder, and others, having this day presented their petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, That at the election of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Boroughbridge, in the County of York, held on or about the 10th day of March 1820, Richard Spooner, Esq. and Marmaduke Lawson, Esq. and also George Mundy, Esq. and Henry Dawkins, Esq. were candidates to represent the said Borough in Parliament; and that the Bailiff of the said Borough, who acted as the returning officer, conceiving the said Richard Spooner and Marmaduke Lawson to have a considerable majority of legal votes at such election, returned the said Richard Spooner and Marmaduke Lawson as duly elected to serve in Parliament as Burgesses for the said Borough of Boroughbridge, against which return a petition was presented to the House by and on the behalf of the said George Mundy and the said Henry Dawkins stating, amongst other things, that the said George Mundy and Henry Dawkins were duly elected, and ought to have been returned as Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Boroughbridge, and praying such relief as to the House should seem meet. That on the 1st day of June 1820, a Select Committee of the House was appointed to try the merits of the said petition, and that the said Committee being of opinion that the merits of the said petition depended on a question before them respecting the right of election for the said Borough, on the hearing of the said petition, required the counsel for the several parties to deliver to the clerk of the said Committee, statements in writing of the several rights of election for which they each contended, and that in consequence thereof, the counsel for the said George Mundy and Henry Dawkins, and also for the several other petitioners, delivered in a statement as follows: "That the right of election is in tenants occupying Burgage Houses, or the sites of Burgage Houses, in Boroughbridge, upon the roll or court-call of the manor of Aldborough, such tenants being resident within the Borough." That the counsel for the then sitting Members, the said Richard Spooner and Marmaduke Lawson delivered in a statement as follows: "That the right of election at Boroughbridge is in Boroughmen only. The Boroughmen whose names have been duly and rightfully entered on the occurrence of a vacancy in the roll or book of the manor of Aldborough, and who have thereupon taken the oath of fealty for or in respect of certain ancient Burgage Houses or sites holden of that manor, a vacancy happens only on the death or voluntary resignation of a Boroughman, or on his ceasing to reside in Boroughbridge." That upon the statement delivered in by the counsel for the said George Mundy, Esq. and Henry Dawkins, Esq. the said Committee resolved and determined, "That the right of election as set forth in the said statement is not the right of election for the said Borough of Boroughbridge, in the County of York;" and that upon the statement delivered in by the counsel for the said Richard Spooner and Marmaduke Lawson, the then sitting Members, the said Committee resolved and determined, "That the right of election as set forth in the said statement is not the right of election for the said Borough." That the said Committee resolved and determined, "That the right of voting for the said Borough of Boroughbridge is in those persons whose names shall appear in the roll or court-call of the manor of Aldborough, as tenants of Burgage Houses, or the sites of Burgage Houses, in Boroughbridge, and shall have been duly admitted thereon according to the custom of the manor, being resident within the said Borough." That the said statements, with the said resolutions and determinations of the said Committee, were afterwards, to wit, on the 7th day of June 1820, reported by the said Committee to the House, together with their final determination on the merits of the said petitions, and thereupon the said report was entered on the Journals of the said House. That your petitioners are not satisfied with the said resolutions and determinations of the said Select Committee, and are advised that the same are contrary to law, and are desirous of being admitted parties to oppose the said right of election, so resolved and determined, by the said Committee, to be the right of election for the said Borough, as aforesaid, and to support and establish the said right of election for which the said Richard Spooner and Marmaduke Lawson contended before the said Select Committee, and which was negatived by the said Select Committee, and such other right as shall be consistent with law, and to have the benefit of the Statutes in that behalf made and provided. The petitioners pray that they may be admitted as parties to oppose the said right of election which has been resolved and determined by the said Committee to be the right of election for the said Borough, and to support and establish the said right of election for which the said Richard Spooner and Marmaduke Lawson contended before the said Select Committee, or such other right as shall be consistent with law. Martis, 20^o die Februarij 1821.

Several persons whose names are thereunto subscribed on behalf of themselves and others, being legal electors and persons claiming to have a right to vote as legal electors of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Petersfield, in the County of Southampton, having this day presented their petition to the House of Commons, setting forth: that on the 16th day of June 1820, the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the petition of Nathaniel Atcheson, Esq. and John Camac, Esq., a Lieutenant Colonel of His Majesty's first regiment of Life Guards, and of the several persons whose names were thereunto respectively signed; and also the petition of Henry Williams Lovett, of Gray's Inn, in the County of Middlesex, Esq., and of Robert Shank Atcheson, of Duke-Street, in the City of Westminster, Esq., complaining of an undue election and return for the said Borough, reported to the House, That it appeared to the Committee that the merits of the petitions did in part depend upon the right of election, and therefore the Committee required the counsel on both sides to deliver to the clerk of the Committee, statements in writing of the right of election for which they respectively contended: That in consequence thereof the counsel for the said several petitioners delivered in a statement as follows: "That the right of voting is in the Burgesses (being the inhabitant householders paying scot and lot) and in the freeholders of lands in general, and in freeholders of antient dwelling-houses or shambles, or dwelling-houses or shambles built upon antient foundations within the Borough of Petersfield, in the County of Southampton, nor restricted to houses or shambles of burgage tenure," That the counsel for the sitting members delivered in a statement as follows: "That the right of election of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Petersfield, in the County of Southampton, is in the freeholders of lands or ancient dwelling-houses or shambles, or dwelling-houses or shambles built upon ancient foundations within the said Borough, such lands and dwelling-houses being entire and undivided tenements and freeholds of the nature of burgage tenure," That upon the statement delivered in by the counsel for the petitioners the Committee have
