

money due and secured to the said Mortgagee thereon; and of authorising the said Assignees to accept the said proposals if they shall be approved; and also (in case the proposals of the mortgagee shall not be approved), to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the said real estate of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract as the said Assignees shall think fit and reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Elizabeth Clively, of Woolwich, in the County of Kent, Draper and Haberdasher, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 30th day of March instant, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Office of Messrs. Willis, Clarke, and Watson, in Warnford-Court, Throgmorton-Street, London, to assent to or dissent from the Assignees selling and disposing of the said Bankrupt's stock in trade furniture, and effects, either by public auction or private contract as they may judge most expedient, and to their giving such time and indulgence, and taking such security for the payment of the same or any part thereof as they may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant or other proper person or persons in and about the settlement and adjustment of the said Bankrupt's accounts, and to their making to such accountant or other person or persons so to be employed such compensation for his or their trouble therein as the said Assignees may think reasonable and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any actions suits, and proceedings both at law or in equity, as they may be advised and think necessary, for the recovery and protection of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Harrison, now or late of the Town and Port of Sandwich, in the County of Kent, Woostapler, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, at the Bell Inn, in the said Town and Port, on Wednesday next, the 28th day of March instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, in order to take into consideration and determine as to the best course to be pursued by the said Assignees, in regard to the sale and disposition of the said Bankrupt's property and effects for the benefit of his estate, and more especially to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the freehold and leasehold estates of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, in such parcels, at such time, and upon such terms and conditions as to the said Assignees shall seem most beneficial; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees relinquishing to the mortgagees of the freehold and leasehold estates of the said Bankrupt, in satisfaction of their respective mortgage debts, the right and equity of redemption of the said Bankrupt, in such parts of the estates, as shall be found to be insufficient to discharge the principal money and interest due upon the respective mortgages thereof; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the said Bankrupt's stock in trade, corn, cattle, growing crops, household furniture and other effects, either by public auction or private contract, to such person or persons, and altogether and in one lot, or in several lots, as to them shall seem most advisable, and to their taking such security and giving such time and indulgence for the payment of the same as they may think proper; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees cultivating and carrying on the business of a certain farm, called New Purchase, and other lands in the occupation of the said Bankrupt, until the sale or disposition thereof, and to employ the said Bankrupt, and such servants, agents, work-people and others, as may be useful or necessary to superintend, aid and assist in thrashing out the unthrashed corn and grain now being in or about the same farm and lands, and in the management, cropping and cultivating the same for the present year, with such salary, wages or other allowance or compensation as the said Assignees shall think proper; and to permit and suffer the said Bankrupt and his family to reside in the said farm house, and to have and enjoy the use of such parts of the furniture therein, until the said farm and lands shall be sold, or for such shorter period as the said Assignees shall think fit; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging out of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects the amount of certain sums of money paid and other expences incurred by the petitioning Creditor under the said Commission in respect to the management of the said farm, previously to the choice of the Assignees, and to the paying and discharging the wages and salaries due to the servants and work-men employed by the said Bankrupt, and of certain other costs and charges to be named at the said meeting; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits at law or in equity, for obtaining or getting into their possession certain title deeds and writings relating to any estates of the said Bankrupt which may have been deposited or left by him in the hands of any person or persons by way of pledge, lien or security for any debt or sum or sums of money due or owing from him to them, or to the said Assignees paying such debts, sum or sums of money and to redeem such pledge, lien or security in order to obtain such title deeds and writings as they the said Assignees shall be advised or think right; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting one or more action or actions at law, suit or suits in equity, and to prefer or appear to any petitions that may be advised to bring, prosecute, prefer, appear to, or oppose and to defend and litigate any suits at law or in equity for the recovery or protection of the said Bankrupt's estate; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking the opinion of counsel on any points arising out of the said Bankrupt's affairs, and to leave any dispute or question to arbitration to such person or persons, in such manner and on such terms as by the said Assignees may be deemed expedient and proper; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to act and take such steps, and pursue such measures in and about the said Bankrupt's affairs, as by them in their discretion, may be deemed expedient and proper.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Edward Massey, late of the City of Coventry, but now of Eccleston, in the County of Lancaster, Watch-maker, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, at the House of Richard Forshaw, the sign of the Legs of Man and Bull Inn, in Prescot, in the said County, on Wednesday the 4th day of April next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same day, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of certain patents obtained by the said Bankrupt, for improvements in the manufacture of chronometers and pocket watches, and of all or any other part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, either by public auction or private contract, and to their taking such security for payment of the same as they may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees joining with certain persons in London, and elsewhere, in the sale, either by public auction or private contract of sundry watches, movements and other articles deposited with them as securities for money advanced by them respectively to the said Bankrupt; also to assent to or dissent from the Assignees taking such proceedings as may be deemed necessary for the recovery of divers goods and money, delivered and paid by the said Bankrupt to certain of his Creditors in Coventry, and other places, or otherwise to compromise the same with the said Creditors as the said Assignees may deem right and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking such steps as may be requisite for the investigation of a concern in Newcastle, in the County of Stafford, in which the said Bankrupt was a Partner, and of compounding or making such arrangements with the other Partners interested in that concern, as may appear most beneficial to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Edward Long Fox, the younger, of Idol-Lane, Tower-Street,