

unto the Honourable John Manners, of Portman-square, in the county of Middlesex, and to the Honourable Charles Manners, of Harefield-place, in the said county, second and third sons of John Manners, late of the Grange, near Grantham, in the county of Lincoln, Esq. deceased, by the Right Honourable Louisa now Countess of Dysart, sister and sole heir of the Right Honourable Wilbraham Tollemache, late Earl of Dysart, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that, by and with the consent and approbation of their said most honoured mother (who is the sole representative of the ancient and noble family of Tollemache), and in testimony of their affection and respect for the memory of their maternal ancestors, they and their issue may assume, take, and use the surname of Tollemache, instead of that of Manners, and also bear the arms of Tollemache; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that His Majesty's said concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 2, 1821.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Major-General Sir Henry Torrens, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, and Adjutant-General of His Majesty's Forces, His royal licence and permission that he may accept and wear the insignia of an Honorary Knight Commander of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, which His Most Faithful Majesty has been pleased to confer upon the said Major-General, in testimony of His royal approbation of the distinguished intrepidity displayed by him in action with the enemy in Portugal.

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration, together with the relative documents, be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 2, 1821

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about half past eight o'clock in the evening of Thursday the 15th of February last, as Mr. Owen Foulkes was leading his horse down Penmaenmawr, on the Conway side of the turnpike, in the parish of Llanfairfechan, in the county of Carnarvon, he was suddenly seized by three men, who dragged him to the sea-side, and plunged him upon his face into the water, and kept him down with sticks until he was nearly suffocated, and robbed him of his pocket-book, containing six pounds;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or apcomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The above reward to be paid on conviction by J. Hughes, Esq. Clerk of the Peace for the county of Carnarvon.

Whitehall, April 6, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Thursday the 5th instant, about eight o'clock, a large hay-stack belonging to Mr. John Ward, of Belper, in the county of Derby, was wilfully and maliciously set fire to;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said hay-stack), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to be paid on conviction by the said John Ward to any person or persons (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Admiralty-Office, April 4, 1821.

THIS is to give notice to all whom it may concern, that the Right Honourable the Earl of Morley hath, in pursuance of the Act of the 46 Geo. 3. cap. 158, given me notice, dated the 18th of last month, of his Lordship's intention of joining two quays on his property, on the southern shore of Lower Lairey, near Catwater.

J. W. Croker.

Exchequer Bill-Office, April 6, 1821.

ALL Exchequer Bills, dated in the months of March, April, May, and June 1820, with the interest due thereon, will be paid off on the 28th day of April instant, when the interest will cease. Such bills will be received daily (holidays excepted), from ten o'clock till one, until and including the 26th day of April instant, at this Office, where lists are to be obtained, containing instructions for arranging the bills: The bearers must endorse each bill with their usual signatures, and write their names and residences at the bottom of each list; and where the names of holders are inserted in bills, the bearers, not being such holders, must previously
