Heralds-College, June 16, 1821.

THE King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council having been pleased to command me, as Deputy Earl-Marshal of England, forthwith to prepare and countersign letters to be passed under the royal sign manual, requiring the attendance at the Solemnity of His Majesty's Royal Coronation of all the Peers of Great Britain; and His Majesty having been further pleased to command me to prepare such letters also for such Temporal Peers of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, called Ireland, who sat and voted in the House of Lords of Ireland before the Union, or whose right to sit and vote therein, or to vote at the election of a representative Peer for Ireland has, on claim made on their behalf, been admitted, or shall, on or before the last day of the present session of Parliament, be admitted by the House of Lords of the United Kingdom, and who are not now Members of the House of Commons of the United Kingdom, I do hereby request that all those Peers who, in conformity to the above regulations, are or may be entitled to assist at the Solemnity of His Majesty's Royal Coronation, will be pleased forthwith to transmit their respective addresses to Sir George Naylor, Clarenceux King of Arms, at the Heralds-College, in order that their letters of summons may be forwarded without delay.

HENRY HOWARD MOLYNEUX-HOWARD,
Deputy Earl Marshal.

Heralds-College, June 22, 1821.

The Deputy Earl Marshal's Order concerning the Robes, Coronets, &c. which are to be worn by the Peers at the Coronation of His Most Sacred Majesty King George the Fourth.

THESE are to give notice to all Peers who attend at the proceeding to His Majesty's Coronation, that the robe or mantle of the Peers be of crimson velvet, edged with miniver, the cape furred with miniver pure, and powdered with bars or rows of ermine, according to their degree, viz.

- Barons, two rows.
- Viscounts, two rows and a half.
- Earls, three rows.
- Marquesses, three rows and a half.
- Dukes, four rows.

Their under-habits, of very rich white satin, laced with gold.

White silk stockings and white shoes.

The swords in scabbards of crimson velvet appendant to a belt of the same.

Their coronets to be of silver gilt; the caps of crimson velvet, turned up with ermine, with a gold tassel on the top; and no jewels or precious stones are to be set or used in the coronets, or counterfeit pearls instead of silver balls.

The coronet of a BARON to have, on the circle or rim, six silver balls at equal distances.

The coronet of a VISCOUNT to have, on the circle, sixteen silver balls.

The coronet of an EARL to have, on the circle, eight silver balls, raised upon points, with gold strawberry leaves between the points.

The coronet of a MARQUESS to have, on the circle, four gold strawberry leaves, and four silver balls alternately, the latter a little raised on points above the rim.

The coronet of a DUKE to have, on the circle, eight gold strawberry leaves.

By His Majesty's command,
HENRY HOWARD MOLYNEUX-HOWARD,
Deputy Earl Marshal.

Heralds-College, June 22, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that drawings of the dresses appointed to be worn at the approaching Solemnity of His Majesty's Royal Coronation, by the Members of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, under the degree of the Peerage, by the Clerks in Ordinary of the Privy Council, by the Trainbearers of His Majesty and of the Princes of the Blood Royal, and also by the Officers of the Royal Household, and by the Barons of the Cinque Ports, may be seen at this College, between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and four o'clock in the afternoon, upon production of an order, signed either by a Privy Councillor, Clerk in Ordinary of the Privy Council, Trainbearer, an Officer of the Royal Household, or by a Baron of the Cinque Ports.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

Appointing a Day for the Solemnity of the Coronation of His Majesty.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing date the sixth day of May one thousand eight hundred and twenty, We did (amongst other things) publish and declare Our Royal intention to celebrate the Solemnity of Our Royal Coronation upon Tuesday the first day of August then next ensuing, at Our Palace at Westminster: and whereas by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing date on the twelfth of July following, We thought fit to adjourn the said Solemnity until Our Royal will and pleasure should be further signified thereon: and whereas We have resolved, by the favour and blessing of Almighty God, to celebrate the said Solemnity upon Thursday the nineteenth day of July next, at Our said Palace at Westminster; We do by this Our Royal Proclamation give notice of and publish Our resolution therein; and We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving subjects whom it may concern, that all persons of what rank or quality soever they be, who either upon Our letters to them directed, or by reason of their offices and tenures, or otherwise, are to do any service at the time of Our Coronation; do duly give their attendance at the said Solemnity on Thursday the nineteenth day of July next, in all respects furnished and appointed as to so great a Solemnity appertaineth, and answerable to the dignities and places which every one of them respectively holdeth and enjoyeth; and of this they or any of them are not to fail, as they will answer the contrary at their perils, unless upon special reasons, by Ourselves under Our sign manual to be allowed, We shall dispense with any of their services or attendances.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this ninth day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS John Earl of Stair was duly elected and returned to be one of the sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and is since deceased; in order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his room, We do, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the second day of August next, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland, to sit and vote in the House of Peers of this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the room of the said John Earl of Stair, deceased, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall then be present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both constituent and proxy being qualified according to law), and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into the High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We strictly charge and command that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns in Scotland, twenty-five days, at least, before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such election.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this ninth day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.
