

EXCHEQUER BILLS.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE LORDS
COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

BY a clause in an Act of Parliament, anno 48^o Georgii Tertii Regis, intituled "An Act for regulating the issuing and paying off of Exchequer Bills," it is enacted, "that from and after the passing of this Act, all Exchequer Bills which shall hereafter be made forth under the authority of any Act of Parliament, shall be prepared and made out at the receipt of the Exchequer, in such method and form as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall think most safe and convenient, and may contain one common sum or different sums in the principal monies; provided always, that every such Exchequer Bill shall and may be signed by the Auditor of the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, or in his name by any person duly authorised by the said Auditor to sign the same, with the approbation of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, in writing under their hands; and that every such authority shall be duly registered in the proper Office for the issue of Exchequer Bills, and notice thereof published in the London Gazette before any Exchequer Bill, signed by virtue of such authority, shall be put into circulation."

May it please your Lordships,

These are to certify that I have appointed and chosen William Rose Haworth, Esq. to sign in my name all Exchequer Bills that shall or may be issued under the authority of the above recited Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, and do present him for your Lordships' approbation.

GRENVILLE, Auditor.

Exchequer, the 4th day of August 1821.

We approve of the above mentioned William Rose Haworth, Esq. to sign all such Exchequer Bills as may be directed to be issued by virtue of the above recited Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

Admiralty-Office, August 4, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Widows of Commissioned and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, receiving pensions from the Charity established for their relief, will be paid their pensions due the 30th of June last, at No. 10, New-Square, Lincoln's-Inn, by Edward Finch Hatton, Esq. the Paymaster of the Charity, on the days following, viz.

The Widows of Flag-Officers, Superannuated Rear-Admirals, Captains, Commanders, Lieutenants, and Masters; on Friday the 10th instant;

The Widows of Surgeons, Purzers, and Boat-swains, on Saturday the 11th instant;

And the Widows of Gunners and Carpenters, on Monday the 13th instant; and on every succeeding Thursday, between the hours of ten and twelve.

And notice is hereby further given, that remittance bills will be sent on the 10th instant, to those Widows resident in the country, who have requested to be paid their pensions near their respective residences.

J. W. Croker.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to extend and amend an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty, to enable Peltro William Tomkins, engraver, to dispose of his collection of paintings, drawings, and engravings, together with several copies of certain books therein mentioned, and the lease of the premises called the British Gallery of Pictures, by way of lottery," it is provided, that "one series of the said numbers in the said separate lottery" (therein particularly mentioned and directed to be drawn) "should be prizes, and the other should be all blanks, to be determined in manner following (that is to say); if the last drawn ticket in such separate lottery, whether the same lottery should be drawn at one or more drawings, should be an even number, then the red tickets only should be entitled to the prizes, and the black tickets should be all blanks;" now we, the Commissioners acting under the said Act, having superintended the drawing the said separate lottery, do hereby declare and certify, that the last drawn ticket in the same was an even number, and that in consequence thereof the red tickets in the said lottery are entitled to the prizes.—Cooper's-Hall, the 31st July 1821.
