Whitehall, September 15, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that a great body of men, to the number of fifty or more, armed with pistols, cutlasses, and other offensive weapons, feloniously assembled on the sea, shore at Marsh Bay, near Margate, about two o'clock in the morning of Sunday the 2d of September instant, in order to be aiding and assisting in the illegal running, landing, and carrying away of foreign spirits and other prohibited and uncustomed goods, and who, on being opposed by an Officer and several seamen belonging to His Majesty's ship Severn, employed on the preventive service, maliciously and feloniously attacked and fired at them, and severely wounded the Officer and one of the seamen;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in this felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the offenders (except the person or persons who actually wounded the said Officer and seaman), who shall discover his or their accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice for the said felony.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Whitehall, September 22, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Friday the 10th ultimo, as Mr. Nathaniel Wild, of No. 6, Crescent, Union-Street, Whitechapel, was returning home, he was violently assaulted by some evil-disposed person or persons, with a view to committing a robbery upon his person, from the effects of which he expired in about two hours afterwards;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious murder above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the assault), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. James Harris, No. 19, Whitechapel.

Whitehall, September 22, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Monday the 3d instant, a riotous mob assembled at Queenborough, in the county of Kent, and broke open the gaol of the said borough, from whence they rescued a prisoner, named James Gaskin, confined therein for want of securities;
