

managing, watching and lighting of the roads by the same Act authorised to be relinquished, and which said several roads pass through the said several Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George, Southwark, Bermondsey and Christchurch, in the said County of Surrey. And notice is hereby also given, that, in the said Bill to extend the term and to amend, alter, enlarge, repeal or consolidate the powers of the said Acts as aforesaid, an increase and alteration of the existing tolls authorised by the said Acts, or one of them, to be collected; and also a toll or tolls in addition thereto to defray the expence of watering the said several roads is or are intended to be proposed; and notice is hereby also given, that, in the said Bill to extend the term and to amend, alter, enlarge repeal or consolidate the powers of the said Acts as aforesaid, provision is intended to be made for raising money beyond the said several tolls by a proportionate rate or assessment upon the several owners or occupiers of premises adjoining or near to the said several roads towards defraying the expence of watching and lighting the said roads; and notice is hereby also given, that provision is intended to be made in the said Bill for altering and diverting the course of part of the said roads, that is to say, the road called the Lambeth-Road, leading from the Obelisk, in Saint George's Fields, to or towards the land or grounds on which the house and gardens known by the name or sign of the Dog and Duck heretofore stood, by forming the said road from Crescent-Place, in Lambeth-Road aforesaid, rather more to the south east, to join and communicate with another part of the said road opposite or nearly opposite to the front of the New Bethlehem Hospital, in the parish of Saint George, Southwark, and county of Surrey aforesaid.—Dated this 19th day of September 1821.

By order,

Sam. Welchman, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills for making and maintaining a turnpike road in the parish of Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, to the Kent-Road, in the same parish and county, the whole of which said intended road is within the said parish and county; and for making and maintaining all necessary footpaths, sewers, drains, and bridges thereto, particularly a bridge over the Grand Surrey Canal, with approaches thereto, and levying tolls; and for lighting and watching Bowyer-lane and the New Road leading from Kennington to Camberwell, in the several parishes of Lambeth and Camberwell; in the said county of Surrey, and other roads, streets, and places within the said parish of Camberwell, not already lighted and watched under any existing Act or Acts of Parliament.—September 6, 1821.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next Session, for leave to bring in a bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled,

No. 17750.

B

“An Act for paving, lighting, cleansing, watering and watching such streets and other public places within that part of the parish of St. Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, which lies on the north and south sides of the New-Road leading from Paddington to Islington, called Sommer's Town, and is now actually leased to Jacob Laroux, Esq., for building upon, or that may be hereafter leased for the like purpose; and for preventing nuisances and obstructions therein,” and in which said bill, provision is intended to be made for altering and increasing certain rates and duties authorised to be levied by the said Act.—Dated the 15th day of September, 1821.
