SATURDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1821.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by His Lordship to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled, humbly beseech your Majesty to accept our cordial and sincere congratulations on your Majesty's safe return to this your native realm.

That happy and important event has diffused universal joy and satisfaction amongst all your Majesty's faithful subjects, and we trust that your Majesty will believe that it is not more deeply or sincerely felt in any part of your Majesty's extensive dominions than by the inhabitants of this your ancient and loyal city.

We fervently pray that by the favour of Divine Providence your Majesty may continue to a far distant period to reign in the hearts of a grateful people, and in the enjoyment of health and every earthly blessing.

[Transmitted by Richard Hart Davis, Esq. and Henry Bright, Esq. M.M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and devoted subjects, the Mayor, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy, the Gentry, and Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal City of Chester, beg leave to approach you with our united and most sincere congratulations on the happy and safe return of your Majesty to your native kingdom.

Viewing, as we all along have done, with pride and satisfaction your Majesty's reception throughout Ireland, and your Continental dominions, we yet may boldly aver, that the inhabitants of this City yield to none in attachment to their established Constitution, and in personal love and devotion to their King.

Never can we forget the glorious change which has taken place in the aspect of our affairs, since your Majesty first assumed the reins of empire, a change which may greatly be attributed, under Divine Providence, to your Majesty's councils and firmness; then war was desolating almost the whole of Europe, then an inveterate enemy was directing all the energies and efforts of a powerful confederacy against the independence and prosperity of this nation, now victory has procured for us a general peace, and never did the name and character of Great Britain stand more honourably distinguished throughout the world, than at present.

No circumstance or event therefore, in any way affecting your Majesty, can at any time be indifferent to us; and we now hail with gratitude and affection the return of our Monarch to his people.

Duly sensible then, Sire, of the great blessings enjoyed by us under your Majesty's paternal sway, we offer up our devoutest thanksgivings unto Him by whom alone Kings reign; at the same time humbly praying that your Majesty may long be preserved to a free, a loyal, and a religious people.

In the name and on the behalf of a public meeting, held in the Town-Hall, in the City of Chester, on the 26th November 1821.

John S. Rogers, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Mayor.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of the City of Glasgow, beg leave to approach the Throne with renewed assurances of our unshaken loyalty, and of our zealous attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. We congratulate your Majesty upon your safe return to your native land, and upon the joyful reception which your Majesty experienced from your faithful subjects in your
