

16th Regiment of Light Dragoons, John Sneyd Ramsbottom, Gent. to be Cornet, by purchase, vice Montgomery, promoted. Dated 11th December 1821.

MEMORANDA.

The appointment of Lieutenant Honourable Robert King, from half-pay 60th Foot, to be Lieutenant in the 69th Foot, as stated in the Gazette of 22d instant, has not taken place.

Deputy Assistant-Commissary-General Wetherman, lately in charge of the Commissariat Department at the Bahamas, having failed to pay over to his superior the whole of the balance of the public money which ought, according to his accounts, to have been paid over, has been dismissed from His Majesty's service.

Deputy Commissary-General Vaux, having executed the duties of his office in the Peninsula, in a mode which has subjected the public to great loss, and himself to considerable surcharges, has been dismissed from His Majesty's service.

Whitehall, December 10, 1821.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Thomas-Henry Smallwood, of Great Portland-street, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. son of Henry Smallwood, deceased, by Rebecca his wife, daughter of William Hercy, sometime of Winkfield, in the county of Berks, Esq. and sister of Lovelace Hercy, of Winkfield aforesaid, Esq. and of Newman-street, in the parish of St. Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex, banker, also deceased. His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may assume and from henceforth use the surname of Hercy only, and also bear the arms of Hercy, pursuant to the last will and testament of the said Lovelace Hercy, such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect.

And also to order, that His Majesty's said concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, December 7, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about seven o'clock in the evening of Wednesday the 28th of November last, as Mr. Anthony Rouse, of the parish of Redruth, in the county of Cornwall, was returning from Truro, when near Whitehall, in the parish of Kenwyn, he was shot at by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, and dangerously wounded;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually shot at and wounded the said Anthony Rouse), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Overseers of the Poor of the parish of Redruth aforesaid, to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, December 15, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the evening of Sunday the 25th day of November last, some evil-disposed person or persons did wilfully and maliciously set fire to a hay-stack, the property of Mr. Joseph Glead, on his farm in Donnington, near Spalding, in the county of Lincoln;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the County Fire-Office, and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Joseph Glead, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, December 21, 1821.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Wednesday the 12th instant, a wheat stack, the property of the Reverend Thomas Beaumont, placed in his stack-yard at East Bridgford, in the county of Nottingham, was discovered to be on fire; and there is strong reason to suppose, that it was set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz. TWENTY GUINEAS, to be paid by the said Mr. Beaumont, and THIRTY GUINEAS, by the Treasurer of the Nottinghamshire Association for the Prosecution of Felons.
