

Dublin-Castle, December 31, 1821.

THIS day, at one o'clock, the Earl Talbot, late Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, left the Castle, in order to embark on board His Majesty's yacht, the William and Mary, on his return to England.

His Excellency the Marquess Wellesley, Lord Lieutenant, and the Earl Talbot went together from the Castle in the state coach, preceded by the leading coaches, in which were the Officers of State, to the South Wall, where the yacht lay.

They were escorted by a squadron of dragoons, and attended by a number of the Nobility and persons of distinction, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, several of the Aldermen, and principal Citizens, in their carriages, followed by a concourse of people, to the water side.

The streets were lined by the regiments of infantry on Dublin duty.

The Earl Talbot received every demonstration of respect, in passing through the streets, from the people, who testified their regard by repeated wishes for his welfare and safe return to England.

By the KING.
