ENQUIRY FOR THOMAS OWEN.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Porter v. Fox, whereby it is referred to James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire whether Thomas Owen, the nephew named in the will of William Porter, late of Kingston-upon-Thames, in the County of Surrey (the testator in the pleadings named), is living or dead, and if dead whether he died before attaining the age of 25 years.—The said Thomas Owen is hereby required, if living, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out his claim, as the nephew of the said testator, to the property bequeathed to him by the said testator's will.—The said Thomas Owen was the son of Thomas Owen and Rachael his wife, formerly Rachael Porter, who, before her marriage, lived at Isleworth, in Middlesex; after her marriage she and her husband kept a public-house in the Borough of Southwark, where, it is supposed, Thomas Owen the nephew was born; they afterwards lived in Wardour-Street, or Berwick-Street, Oxford-Street, where Thomas Owen the father died about the year 1797.—Thomas Owen the nephew was then about eight years old, and put to board with Mrs. Dell, in Cross-Street, Carnaby-Market, and was taken away by his mother, and has never since been heard of. It is supposed that he went to sea between that period and the year 1807.—Any person who can give information respecting his death is requested to do so, and will be compensated for their trouble by Messrs. Freame and Best, No. 8, Fig-Tree-Court, Temple.
