SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1822.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of November 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fifth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Whitehall, February 12, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that Mr. Joseph Wood, of Intack Farm, near Doncaster, has been missing since the night of Tuesday the 22d of January last, and that there is strong reason to believe that the said Joseph Wood has been murdered by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said supposed murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Corporation of Doncaster, to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence; and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is also hereby offered to any such person who shall discover the body of the said Joseph Wood, in case he shall have been murdered, to be paid by Messrs. Joseph, George, Benjamin, and William Wood.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandises, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of Pigs' Chaps, Pigs' Faces, and German Sausages, legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 29th day of October 1821,

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the 11th day of January instant, Humphrey Hartley, of the City of Dublin, Esq. my agent, did resort to the lands of Molassy, the subdenomination held therewith, called or distinguished by the name of the Garden or One Garden, in or near Dirty-Step, and also part of the lands of Broadmore, all which said lands and premises are situate in the Liberties of the Town of Callan, in the County of Kilkenny, in Ireland, and were formerly in the tenure, possession, and occupation of the Rev. Robert Watts, deceased, by virtue of a lease for three lives, renewable for ever, which was formerly granted thereof by the Right Honourable John Lord Baron Desart, deceased, to the said Robert Watts; and said Humphrey Hartley on my part, and for my use, did then and there demand from the principal occupier or occupiers of said lands and premises the sum of 1501l. 16s. 5d. sterling, being the amount of the several renewal fines, septennial fines, and interest respectively due thereon; and also for the several proportions of such septennial fines which have become due and payable to me, under and by virtue of said lease and the renewal heretofore granted thereof, by the several deaths of all the lives or cestui que vies named in said lease and renewal.—And I do hereby call upon and require such person or persons as shall be legally intitled to the right, benefit, and advantage of said hereinbefore-mentioned lease and renewal, to pay me or my said agent the amount of said fines and interest as aforesaid, or such other sum or sums of money as shall appear to be fairly due to me for the same within the term and space of two months from the date hereof, or from the date of the first insertion of this notice in this Gazette.—And I do hereby also require such person or persons as claim to be intitled to the benefit of the said lease and renewal of said lands and premises forthwith, or as soon as conveniently may be, to furnish me or my said agent with the draft of a proper deed of renewal of the premises now in the tenancy and possession of the person or persons now deriving under said hereinbefore-mentioned lease and renewal, excluding out of such renewal such part of said premises so demised by said lease as aforesaid, as were formerly recovered by Robert Bryan, Esq. deceased, and wife, under an ejectment on the title, grounded on their claim for intermixed acres in said demised premises, by virtue of and under a title paramount to that under which I derive by virtue of certain deeds of conveyance formerly made thereof by said John Lord Baron Desart, deceased, to James Agar, Esq. since deceased, and for which said intermixed acres so recovered by said Robert Bryan and wife, a rateable deduction by the acre will be made by me out of the rent reserved under said original lease.

And take notice, that unless said renewal fines and interest as aforesaid are paid as aforesaid, and such draft of a deed of renewal furnished, I shall insist on the forfeiture of the tenants interest under said lease, and shall proceed in such manner as I shall be advised to recover the actual possession of said hereinbefore-mentioned lands and premises, freed, exonerated, released, and discharged from all claim and claims and right of renewal of all persons whatsoever claiming the same. Given under my hand and title of honour this 17th day of January 1822.

CLIFDEN.
