SATURDAY, MARCH 9, 1822.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 23th of February 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part thereof, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of November 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fifth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammu-

"action, when prohibited by Proclamation or
"Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. *Jas. THE ANNUAL ARMY LIST, with an Index, is in course of publication, and may be had of T. Egerton, Bookseller to the Ordnance, Military Library, Whitehall.

Whitehall, March 8, 1822.

The King having been pleased to nominate and appoint the Right Honourable Edward Thornton, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of His Most Faithful Majesty, to be a Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, and having been pleased to confer upon him the honour of Knighthood; Sir Edward Thornton has been accordingly invested with the ensigns of the said Order.

Whitehall, March 6, 1822.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Edward Brace, Esq. Captain in the Royal Navy, and Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, His royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the cross of the Royal and Distinguished Order of Charles the Third of Spain, with which His Catholic Majesty has been pleased to honour that Officer, in testimony of the high sense that Sovereign entertains of the able conduct and distinguished intrepidity displayed by him at the defence of Cadiz in the year 1811; and that he may also accept and wear the insignia of the third class of the Royal Order of Wilhelm of the Netherlands, which His Majesty the King of the Netherlands has been pleased to confer upon the said Captain Brace, in testimony of His royal approbation of the skill, valour, and perseverance manifested by him while commanding His Majesty's ship the Impregnable at the memorable battle of Algiers, on the 27th day of August 1816; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration, together with the relative documents, be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, March 6, 1822.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Parkin, of Chatham, in the county of Kent, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, February 26, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about eight o'clock in the evening of Thursday the 14th instant, a large barn, filled with corn, and also the out-buildings adjoining, the property of the Reverend John Monins, Rector of the parish of Ringwould, near Deal, in the county of Kent, were set on fire and consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by Richard Monins, Esq. No. 4, Essex-Court, Middle-Temple, London.

Whitehall, March 5, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Tuesday the 15th, or early in the morning of Wednesday the 16th of January last, five stacks of wheat and three stacks of oats, the property of William Clough, Esq. standing in the stack-yard of New-hald Lodge Farm, in the parish of North New-hald, in the east riding of the county of York, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, and were consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. The said reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. Shepherd, Solicitor, Beverley.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandises, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of Pigs' Chaps, Pigs' Faces, and German Sausages, legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 29th day of October 1821, N. VANSITTART.

B. PAGET.
LOWTHER.

Exchequer Bill-Office, March 6, 1822.

THE Exchequer Bills dated in the months of May, June, and July 1821, viz. 1 Geo. 4, £29,000,000, anno 1820; 1 Geo. 4, cap. 60, for carrying on public works and fisheries; 58 Geo. 3, cap. 45, for building additional churches; and 2 Geo. 4, £29,000,000, anno 1821, with the interest due thereon, will be paid off on the 29th day of March instant, when the interest will cease. Such bills will be received daily (holidays excepted), from ten o'clock till one, until and including the 26th day of March instant, at this Office, where lists are to be obtained, containing instructions for arranging the bills. The bearers must endorse each bill with their usual signatures, and write their names and residences at the bottom of each list; and where the names of holders are inserted in bills, the bearers, not being such holders, must previously obtain their endorsements. The bearers must attend to give receipts for the payment.

Payment may be obtained, if required, previous to the said 29th day of March, upon leaving the bills for examination one day prior to that on which such payment is desired.

New bills, bearing an interest of two pence by the day upon every one hundred pounds, and dated the said 29th day of March, may be obtained in whole or in part payment of principal, upon stating the required amount on the lists, delivered on or before the said 26th day of March, which new bills, with the interest on the bills exchanged, will be issued on the 30th day of March instant.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills, dated prior to May 1821, have been advertised to be paid off.

IN pursuance of an Order of the House of Commons, dated 1st March 1822, notice is hereby given, that application is making to Parliament for a Bill for lighting, watching, paving, cleansing, and otherwise improving the streets, lanes, public passages and places within the parish of Bromley St. Leonard, otherwise St. Leonard Bromley, in the county of Middlesex.

John Jones, Solicitor, Stepney-Green, and Commercial-Chambers, 12, Minories.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Honourable House of Commons, of the 4th day of March instant, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament for leave to bring in a Bill for building an additional church or chapel in the parish of St. Andrew, Holborn, in the city of London and county of Middlesex; and providing a fund for the service of the parish church, and of the additional church or chapel, by a commutation in lieu of tithes, and by other means; and to increase the number of the Select Vestry of the said parish.—Dated the 8th day of March 1822.

Thomas Griffith, Solicitor for the Bill.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of Edward Priestley, formerly of Hull, but late of the Island of Jamaica, Merchant, deceased, are requested, by his Administrator, to pay forthwith the amount of their respective debts to Messrs. Edwards and René Payne and Co. Wood-Street, Cheap-side, London, and should there be any Creditors of the said estate who have not yet delivered in the particulars of their respective claims, they are desired to transmit the same to Messrs. Payne and Co. aforesaid, in the course of a fortnight from this date, or they will be excluded from the benefit of a dividend about to be immediately made of the effects in hand belonging to the said estate.

ALL persons having any claims or demands on the estate of Elizabeth Goodbehere, late of China-Terrace, Lambeth, in the County of Surrey, Widow, deceased (who died in the month of August 1820), are requested forthwith to send the particulars thereof to Mr. Edward Stephenson, No. 7, Great Queen-Street, Westminster, the Administrator of the deceased, in order that the same may be examined and discharged.

ALL persons having any claims or demands on the estate of Ann Wood, late of China-Terrace, Lambeth, in the County of Surrey, Widow, deceased (who died in the month of September 1812), are requested forthwith to send the particulars thereof to Mr. Edward Stephenson, No. 7, Great Queen-Street, Westminster, the Administrator of the deceased, in order that the same may be examined and discharged.

THOMAS ROBERTS AND CO. OF LONDON.
UNCLAIMED DIVIDENDS.

January, 1822.

THE several Creditors of said Thomas Roberts and Co. who have established their demands under and pursuant to a certain Deed of Trust between them and said firm, and whose dividends remain unpaid, are hereby requested to apply to Messrs. Sneyd and Co. 42, Upper Sackville-Street, Dublin, for payment of the amount of their said dividends, which is now remaining in their hands ready to be paid.—And notice is hereby given to such of the Creditors of said firm, as have not yet established their demands, pursuant to the provisions of said Trust Deed, to come in and prove the same, on or before the 1st day of July next, otherwise the fund, which would be applicable to the payment of a dividend on their demands, if substantiated, will be divided amongst those Creditors who have already established their claims against said firm.

TO ALL PERSONS WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

Notice is hereby given, that on the 11th day of January instant, Humphrey Hartley, of the City of Dublin, Esq. my agent, did resort to the lands of Molassy, the subdenomination held therewith, called or distinguished by the name of the Garden or Oak Garden, in or near Dirty-Step, and also part of the lands of Broadmore, all which said lands and premises are situate in the Liberties of the Town of Callan, in the County of Kilkenny, in Ireland, and were formerly in the tenure, possession, and occupation of the Rev. Robert Watts, deceased, by virtue of a lease for three lives, renewable for ever, which was formerly granted thereof by the Right Honourable John Lord Baron Desart, deceased, to the said Robert Watts; and said Humphrey Hartley on my part, and for my use, did then and there demand from the principal occupier or occupiers of said lands and premises the sum of 150*l.* 16*s.* 5*d.* sterling, being the amount of the several renewal fines, septennial fines, and interest respectively due thereon; and also for the several proportions of such septennial fines which have become due and payable to me, under and by virtue of said lease and the renewal heretofore granted thereof, by the several deaths of all the lives or certain lives named in said lease and renewal.—And I do hereby call upon and require such person or persons as shall be legally entitled to the right, benefit, and advantage of said hereinbefore-mentioned lease and renewal, to pay me or my said agent the amount of said fines and interest as aforesaid, or such other sum or sums of money as shall appear to be fairly due to me for the same within the term and space of two months from the date hereof, or from the date of the first insertion of this notice in this Gazette.—And I do hereby also require such person or persons as claim to be entitled to the benefit of the said lease and renewal of said lands and premises forthwith, or as soon as conveniently may be, to furnish me or my said agent with the draft of a proper deed of renewal of the premises now in the tenancy and possession of the person or persons now deriving under said hereinbefore-mentioned lease and renewal, excluding out of such renewal such part of said premises so demised by said lease as aforesaid, as were formerly recovered by Robert Bryan, Esq. deceased, and wife, under an ejectment on the title, grounded on their claim for intermixed acres in said demised premises, by virtue of and under a title paramount to that under which I derive by virtue of certain deeds of conveyance formerly made thereof by said John Lord Baron Desart, deceased, to James Agar, Esq. since deceased, and for which said intermixed acres so recovered by said Robert Bryan and wife, a rateable deduction by the acre will be made by me out of the rent reserved under said original lease.

And take notice, that unless said renewal fines and interest as aforesaid are paid as aforesaid, and such draft of a deed of renewal furnished, I shall insist on the forfeiture of the tenants interest under said lease, and shall proceed in such manner as I shall be advised to recover the actual possession of said hereinbefore-mentioned lands and premises, freed, exonerated, released, and discharged from all claim and claims and right of renewal of all persons whatsoever claiming the same. Given under my hand and title of honour this 17th day of January 1822.

CLIFDEN,

TOBAGO.
