

neon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee retaining, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, certain costs and charges, which will be there specified, incurred by him in an action against the said Bankrupt, and the extra costs of and attending the issuing and working the said Commission to the choice of an Assignee; to indemnifying, out of the said estate, the Messenger and Mr. Gutteridge, his agent, against certain actions commenced against them by the Bankrupt, as also any other action or suit commenced or to be commenced against any person or persons, touching the execution of the said Commission, and the effects seized or to be seized under the same; to the said Assignee compounding and agreeing with the landlord of a farm, lately held by the Bankrupt, in the said County of Herts, called Eastbrook-Hay, as well for the rent due and to become due therefore, as the crops and fallows, and the corn and hay of the last year's produce thereon, as he may think fit, and to his relinquishing and delivering up an agreement for a lease of the said farm, or exposing the same for sale; also to the said Assignee indemnifying, out of the said estate, the Sheriff of Herts, for withdrawing a certain execution levied thereon; and also to assent to or dissent from his employing counsel, and to convene private meetings of the Commissioners to examine the said Bankrupt or any other person or persons, touching his estate and effects; and to his commencing or defending any action at law or suit in equity, for the recovery or protection thereof, or of any part thereof, and especially to resist the claim made by the reputed wife of the said Bankrupt for part of such estate and effects; and to his compounding or submitting to arbitration any dispute concerning the same as he may think proper, and to his disposing thereof, by public auction or private contract, either for cash or upon credit, and employing such auctioneer or agent therein as he may think fit, without being personally answerable for his acts or defaults; and generally to confer and advise on the said Bankrupt's affairs, and to give the said Assignee proper authorities in respect thereof.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Young and John Renard, late of Downes-Wharf Hermitage, in the County of Middlesex, Wharfingers, Merchants, Dealers and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Wednesday the 1st of May next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the household furniture and effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, by public auction or private contract, to the said Bankrupts, or either of them, or to any other person or persons, at a valuation or otherwise, upon such credit and security as the said Assignees shall think proper and advisable; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees allowing and paying to the said Bankrupts, or either of them, such sum or sums of money as they the said Assignees shall think proper, by way of compensation for the labour and attendance of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, in and about making up, adjusting and settling the books and accounts of and relating to the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, and to any servant or servants of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, such sum or sums as may be owing to him, her or them for wages or otherwise; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of or relating to the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, or any part thereof; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Hewett, of Fair Mile House, near Henley-upon-Thames, in the County of Oxford, Banker, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 11th day of May next, at Eleven for Twelve o'Clock precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to receive a certain communication from the said Assignees relative to the Bankruptcy of the said George Hewett, and as to the accounts of the said estate, and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making or suspending a dividend thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing suits in equity against the several persons to be named at the said meeting; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking certain measures to be then proposed for the recovery of a debt due from a certain person, residing in a foreign country, to be named at the said meeting, or to authorise the said Assignees to employ any person or persons as agents or attorneys in such manner as shall be proposed for recovering the same, and to make such agent or attorney such remuneration or compensation for his services as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees submitting to arbitration, giving time for payment, taking security, or otherwise compounding or agreeing any matters in difference or dispute between them and any person or persons whomsoever, and particularly between them and the several persons to be named at such meeting, and for enabling the said Assignees to receive and give releases thereupon; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying the amount of the expences incurred by the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, in and relating to the choice of Assignees by and out of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and to assent to or dissent from allowing the said Assignees such costs, charges and expences as have been or may be incurred by them in or about the conduct or management of the said Bankrupt's estate; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Ramsden, of Leeds, in the County of York, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 7th day of May next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Mr. Hogreaves, Solicitor, in Leeds aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the household furniture, stock in trade, and other effects of the said Bankrupt, by private contract or public auction, at such time and in such manner as the said Assignees shall think fit, and either for ready money or upon credit, and to the giving such time and taking such security for payment thereof, or any part thereof, as to them shall seem proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compromising, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Milne, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Painter, Plumber and Glazier, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 3d day of May next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Office of Mr. Ramsbottom, Solicitor, Drury-Lane, Liverpool, to take into consideration the proposals made for adjusting and settling the lien claimed by Mr. Charles Bird, Attorney at Law, on certain property late belonging to the Bankrupt; and also to empower the said Assignees entering into any contract or contracts with the said Charles Bird for that purpose, as the said Assignees may deem necessary; and also to empower the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity touching or concerning the same as may be deemed necessary for the benefit of the estate; and further to empower the said Assignees taking such measures for the recovery of certain property of the Bankrupt, now in the possession of a certain person who will be named at the meeting, as may be thought necessary; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Charles Miller, of Abchurch-Lane, London, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman (trading under the name of C. A. Miller), are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 3d day of May next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the Bankrupt's estate and effects by private contract or otherwise as they shall think fit, and receiving the personal security of the purchaser for the same, payable at such time as the Assignees may think reasonable, contesting or compromising the claims of certain persons to property and effects belonging