SATURDAY, MAY 11, 1822.

Whitehall, May 10, 1822.

THE King has been pleased, by letters patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to grant unto Sir George Nayler, Knight, Clarenceux King of Arms, and Knight of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, the office of Garter Principal King of Arms, with the name of Garter, and the style, liberties, and preeminences, belonging to the said office, void by the decease of Sir Isaac Heard, Knight, late Garter.

Carlton-House, May 10, 1822.

The King was this day graciously pleased to invest Sir George Nayler, Knight, Garter Principal King of Arms, with the gold chain and badge appertaining to the said office of Garter.

Whitehall, April 10, 1822.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Henry Geast, of Bordesley-Park, in the county of Worcester, Esq. grandson of Richard Geast, late of Handsworth, in the county of Stafford, Gentleman, by Jane his wife, sister and heir of John Dugdale, of Blyth-Hall, in the county of Warwick, Esq. and grand-daughter of Sir John Dugdale, Knt. Norroy King of Arms, who was the son of Sir William Dugdale, of Blyth-Hall aforesaid, Knt. deceased, sometime Garter Principal King of Arms, His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, from affectionate regard to the memory of his aforesaid maternal great uncle John Dugdale, and from respect to the memory of the said Sir William Dugdale, take and use the surname of Dugdale, in addition to and after that of Geast, and bear the arms of Dugdale, quarterly with those of Geast; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms,

Navy-Office, May 3, 1822

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of January to the 31st of March 1822, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 13th, 14th, and 15th instant, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 16th, 18th, 20th, 21st, and 22d instant, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 23d and 25th instant, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the form of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, the said Attornies are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st of March 1822, will commence paying on the 13th instant; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed. G. Smith.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

*Army Pay-Office, Whitehall,
 May 10, 1822.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Widows' Pensions and Compassionate List Allowances will be in course of payment on Wednesday next the 15th instant, between the hours of eleven and two o'clock.

By order of the Paymaster-General,
Rob. Webber, Cashier.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament, passed in the fortieth year of His late Majesty's reign, the Provost and Senior Fellows of Trinity College do hereby publish and declare their direction, that Francis Barker, M. D. shall continue to hold the Professorship of Chemistry in the University of Dublin, for the term of seven years, to commence on the 16th day of May next.

By order of the Board,
Robt. Phipps, Regr. Trin. Coll. Dublin.

Marshal's-Office.—Summons by Edict.

By virtue of authority received from his Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor, Commander in Chief, President of the Honourable the Courts of Justice of the Colony Berbice, and its Dependencies, &c. &c. &c. dated the 8th February 1822:

I, the undersigned, at the instance of William Fraser and John Brown, in their quality as Deliberating Executors of the last will and testament of John Layfield, late of this Colony, deceased, do hereby, for the first time, summon all known and unknown Creditors and Claimants against the estate of John Layfield, late of this Colony, deceased, to appear at the bar of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, on Monday the 15th July 1822, and following days, for the purpose of rendering in their respective claims, properly substantiated, and in due form against the above-mentioned estate; whereas in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal, will be proceeded against the non-appearers according to law.

This first summons by edict, published as customary.—Berbice, 12th February 1822.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

TO be sold by public auction, by Mr. Harril (before the major part of the Commissioners appointed in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against James Room the elder, pursuant to an Order of his Honour the Vice-Chancellor of England), on Thursday the 16th day of May 1822, at the Commercial-Rooms, in the City of Bristol, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon;

Lot 1.—The fee simple and inheritance of a comfortable, roomy, and convenient dwelling-house, lately built, comprising two parlours, kitchen, and cellar, with five bed-rooms over the same; and also a stable and gig-house, with an orchard and garden surrounding the same, containing by estimation about one acre and a half, now in the occupation of Mr. James Harris, as yearly tenant.

These premises are situate in the pleasant village of Portishead, in the County of Somerset, about eleven miles from Bristol, and at a short distance from a good beach, adjoining the Bristol Channel, of which most parts of Portishead command extensive views.

Lot 2.—A roomy and convenient dwelling house (in good repair, and well supplied with both sorts of water), situate No. 18, in Orchard-Street, in the Parish of St. Augustin, in the City of Bristol, comprising on the ground floor a good entrance hall, two parlours, china-pantry, kitchen, and laundry, with three arched cellars under the same, and on the first story a drawing-room and two bed-rooms, with three bed-rooms and two attics over the same, and were for many years past in the occupation of the Bankrupt, but now void.

Lot 3.—A four-stall stable, with a coach-house adjoining thereto, situate in Frogmore-Street, and at the back part of lot 2, now in the occupation of Mr. Eckley, as yearly tenant, at the rent of 15l. per annum.

N.B. The two last lots are leasehold, under the Governors of Queen Elizabeth's Hospital, in Bristol, and are held for the residue of an absolute term of 40 years, granted by indenture of lease, of which nine years were unexpired on the 25th day of December last, and for which time only the two last lots will be sold, and the same premises are subject to the payment of a yearly chief rent of 25s. which will be apportioned at the same sale.

Lot 4.—The benefit right and equity of redemption, or other right and interest of the Assignees of the said Bankrupt, of and in a cottage or tenement, comprising a parlour, kitchen, and back kitchen, with four bed-rooms over the same, and a large garden surrounding the cottage, containing by estimation about half an acre, situate in front of and adjoining the turnpike-road at Cribb's-Causeway, in the Parish of Henbury, in the County of Gloucester.

This last lot is held by lease, under the Lords of the Hundred of Henbury, for the residue of three several terms of 99 years each, determinable with three healthy lives, at the rent of 2s. and may be renewed on the death of either life.

N. B. The premises comprised in the said lot are charged with the payment of the sum of 165l. 4s. 3d. secured by mortgage thereon, and which sum the purchaser will have to pay the Mortgagee thereof.

Lot 5.—A close of rich pasture land, called Press-Mead, fronting and adjoining the turnpike-road leading from Bristol to the Old and New Passages, and nearly opposite lot 4, at Cribb's-Causeway aforesaid, containing by admeasurement 4A. 2R. 6P.—This lot is freehold of inheritance.

Lot 6.—A piece of void ground, being the scite whereon two coach-houses and stables lately stood, with a large arched cellar under the same, situate in Hobb's-Lane, leading into Orchard-Street, in the Parish of St. Augustin, in the City of Bristol.

This last lot is leasehold, under the Governors of the Hospital of Queen Elizabeth, in Bristol, and held by two several indentures of lease, of which about 17 years are respectively unexpired, and for which time the purchaser will be entitled to the possession thereof, subject to the payment of the annual rents of 2s. 6d. and 10s. reserved by the said leases.

For further particulars and conditions of sale please to apply to William Gregory, Solicitor, 23, Small-Street, Bristol

Shropshire and Montgomeryshire.—Valuable Freehold Estates.
