

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, MAY 18, 1822.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 28th of February 1822.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part thereof, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year. Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of November 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fifth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammu-

" nition, when prohibited by Proclamation or " Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, May 18, 1822.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Stephens Edwards, of Hilperton, in the county of Wilts, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, May 18, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about ten o'clock in the night of Thursday the 28th of March last, a fire was discovered in a close adjoining the dwelling-house of Mr. Stephen Searle, of Folkington, in the county of Sussex, which consumed one stack of wheat, one stack of beans, and one stack of oats, the property of the said Stephen Searle, and also a barn and other out-buildings, with the corn, &c. therein; and that there is strong reason to suppose, that the same was caused by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Afriston Society for prosecuting felons, thieves, &c. to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

CONTRACTS FOR COALS AND CANDLES.

Grocers' Hall,
May 18, 1822.

By Authority of Parliament,

THOMAS NETTLESHIPP, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

I JOHN WILLIAMS, of Coed' Accas, in the Parish of Llanrhaidri, in Cimmerch, in the County of Denbigh, Drover and Grazier, having employed different persons to purchase and buy Cattle for me, do hereby give notice, that there is no person now employed by me for that purpose; and that I will not be answerable for the amount of any purchases pretended to be made by any person or persons for me, or on my behalf; and that I will not be answerable for any sum or sums of money that now is, or are, or may become due, for any cattle purchased, or pretended to be purchased, by any person or persons for me, or on my behalf, unless hereafter especially authorised by me for that purpose.—Witness my hand this 4th day of May 1822.

Jno. Williams.

WILLIAM WHINFIELD, deceased.

ALL persons having any claims or demands upon the estate and effects of William Whinfield, late of Gracechurch Street, London, Grocer, deceased, are requested to send the particulars thereof, and of any securities they may hold, to the Office of J. G. Saggars, Solicitor, Crosby-Square, London; and all persons indebted to the said estate are desired forthwith to pay the same to the said J. G. Saggars.

IF MARIA NUTHALL, Widow, the relict, and Charles Nuthall, the only child of William Nuthall, late in the Marine Pilot Service of the Honourable East India Company at Calcutta, in the East Indies, deceased, or (in case they the said Maria Nuthall and Charles Nuthall are dead) if their next of kin or legal representatives will apply to Mrs. Sarah Hooper, No. 16, Brompton-Row, near Knightsbridge, they will hear of something to their advantage.—The said William Nuthall was lost at Sea in one of the East India Company's ships in the month of May 1793, at which time the said Maria Nuthall and the said Charles Nuthall her son were living at Calcutta.

Summons by Edict.

BY virtue of authority received from his Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor, Commander in Chief in and over the Colony Berbice, and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. President in all Courts and Colleges within the same, &c. &c. &c. dated 15th February 1822; I, the undersigned, at the instance of P. Grant, William Scott, and John Fraser, inhabitants of this Colony, in quality as the Deliberating Executors of the last will and testament of the late Donald Grant, of this Colony, deceased, do hereby, for the first time, summon all known and unknown creditors and claimants against the estate of the late Donald Grant, deceased, to appear before the bar of the Honourable Court of Civil Justice, Berbice, on Monday the 15th day of July 1822, and following days, for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly substantiated, and in due form and time, against above-mentioned estate.—Summons by Edict.—By virtue of authority received from His Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor, Commander in Chief, President in all Courts and Colleges within the same, &c. &c. &c.; I, the undersigned, at the instance of Peter Grant and John Fraser, inhabitants of this Colony, in quality as Deliberating Executors of the last will and testament of the late Evan Fraser, jun. of this Colony, deceased, do hereby, for the first time, summon by edict all known and unknown Creditors and Claimants against the estate of the said Evan Fraser, jun. deceased, to appear at the bar of the Honourable Court of Civil Justice, on Monday the 15th of July 1822, and following days, for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly substantiated, and in due form and time, against above-mentioned estate; whereas in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal, will be proceeded against the non-appears according to law.

This first summons by edict, published as customary.—Berbice, January 25, 1822.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

IN pursuance of authority received from His Honour the President of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, bearing date the 23d instant;

I, the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said United Colony, do hereby, in the name and behalf of John Waddell, M. D. Executor to the last will and testament of Mrs. Ann Waterton, deceased, Widow of the late Christopher Waterton, formerly of this Colony, and also of Woodlands, near Doncaster, Yorkshire, summon by edict, ad valvas curiæ, all known and unknown creditors of the estate of said Mrs. Ann Waterton, and of her estates in these Colonies, Bienfait, Jalousie, Fellowship, and Windsor, and of the estate of Woodlands, situated in England, to appear in person, or by proxy, before the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, at their Session, to be holden at the Court-House, in Georgetown, in the Colony of Demerary aforesaid, on the 12th day of August ensuing, and following days, in order to render their claims, properly attested and in due form; whereas, in default of which, will be proceeded against the non-appears according to law.—Demerary and Essequibo, the 28th January 1822.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Bently, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against James Price, of Little Malvern, in the County of Worcester, Dealer and Chapman, on Monday the 1st day of July 1822, at the Star and Garter Inn, Foregate-Street, in the City of Worcester, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, subject to such conditions of sale, and either together or in the following or such other lots as shall then be agreed on, the after mentioned valuable freehold and leasehold estates;

Lot 1. A messuage or farm-house, barns, stables and other outbuildings, fold yard and sundry inclosed pieces or parcels of arable meadow and pasture land, called Dinmore or Dalmore Farm, comprising together ninety-five acres (more or less), part whereof is in the occupation of William Green, a yearly tenant, and the remainder in the possession of the Assignees of the said Bankrupt or their under tenant.

Lot 2. Several pieces or parcels of land lying together, and containing thirty acres (more or less), called Lombard Tree Grounds, now in the occupation of the said William Green.

Lot 3. Two pieces or parcels of land called Salter's Tining Meadow, and Salter's Tining Field, also lying together, and containing twenty-three and half acres (more or less).

Lot 4. Four pieces or parcels of land called Pool Piece, Stock Orchard, Little Field, and Summer's Hill, containing twenty-four and half acres (more or less).

Lot 5. Two messuages or farm-houses, barns, stables and other outbuildings, fold yards, gardens, and sundry inclosed pieces or parcels of arable meadow and pasture land, being part of two several farms called respectively the Wood Farm, and Sandy Land Farm, containing 169 acres (more or less). To one of the last mentioned farms are attached a threshing-machine and chaff-cutter, worked by water, and which may be taken by the purchaser of this lot, at a valuation.

Lot 6. A piece or parcel of land called Upper Field, containing six acres (more or less).

Lot 7. Three pieces or parcels of land, called Lane's Meadow, Lane's Field and Windmill Hill, containing together twenty-four acres (more or less).

Lot 8. A piece of woodland called the Coppice, containing ten acres (more or less).

The above mentioned lots are held of the Bishop of Worcester, by lease for three lives who are all in existence, at a reserved rent of £10. per annum.

N. B. The Bishops of Worcester always add a life, and renew the lease of their estates, on payment of a reasonable fine.

Lot 9. A freehold messuage or tenement, garden, and two pieces of pasture land adjoining, planted with fruit trees, and comprising together four and half acres (more or less), in the occupation of Edward Crisp and the Assignees of the Bankrupt.

The last mentioned premises will be sold together or in such lots as shall be agreed upon, and the purchaser or purchasers thereof will be entitled to rights of common on the extensive waste called Malvern Chase.

The whole of the above described estates form a valuable investment for money, are situate in the Parish of Welland, in the County of Worcester, within two miles of the celebrated Malvern Wells, five of Upton-upon-Severn, five of Ledbury, good market towns, and ten miles from the City of Worcester.

For outgoings, and all other particulars, apply to Mr. Saunders, Solicitor, Sidbury, Worcester, or Mr. Clarke, Solicitor, Upton-upon-Severn; Mr. William Green, the tenant, of Dalmore Farm; Mr. Richard Harris, of Welland, and Mr. John Benbow, of the Wood Farm, in Hanley Castle, will cause the estates to be shewn.

Freehold Estate, at Stamford-Baron.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Huddleston v. Terrewest, with the approbation of Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the George Inn, in Saint Martin's, Stamford-Baron, in the County of Northampton, on Tuesday the 11th day of June 1822, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, in eight lots, before Matthew Hage, the person appointed by the said Master for that purpose;

A freehold estate, situate at Saint Martin's, Stamford-Baron aforesaid, consisting of two capital messuages and out-buildings, with gardens adjoining, situate in the High-Street, near to the George Inn, Saint Martin's, Stamford-Baron, in the respective occupations of Miss Brereton and the Rev. Mr. Amphlett.

A large barn, part whereof is converted into a plumber's shop, and the remaining part into a chaise-house, four stables, and two chaise-houses, all situate in Church-Lane, Saint Martin's, Stamford-Baron, and in the respective occupations of Mr. Barnes, Miss Brereton, Mr. Norris, Mr. Lawson, and the Rev. Mr. Amphlett.

And a close of meadow or pasture land, in the Cow Pasture, Saint Martin's, Stamford-Baron, containing by estimation one acre, or thereabouts, in the occupation of Mr. Lawson.

The premises may be viewed by applying to the respective tenants; and particulars may be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-

Lane, London; and of Mr. M'Dougall, Solicitor, Lincoln's-Inn, London; Mr. Jalland, Solicitor, Newark-upon-Trent; of Mr. Hage, the Auctioneer, Newark-upon-Trent; and at the place of sale.

Freehold Estate at Newark-upon-Trent.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Huddleston v.
