county of Devon, and for regulating the stands and fares of hackney coaches and carts using the same.

Whitehall, May 18, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about ten o'clock in the night of Thursday the 28th of March last, a fire was discovered in a close adjoining the dwelling-house of Mr. Stephen Searle, of Folkington, in the county of Sussex, which consumed one stack of wheat, one stack of beans, and one stack of oats, the property of the said Stephen Searle, and also a barn and other out-buildings, with the corn, &c. therein; and that there is strong reason to suppose, that the same was caused by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Alfriston Society for prosecuting felons, thieves, &c. to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

TAKE notice, that a writ of ad quod damnum has issued, directed to the Sheriff of the county of Wilts, to enquire if it will be to the damage or prejudice of our Sovereign Lord the King, or of any other, if our said Sovereign Lord the King should grant unto the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, Governors of the possessions, revenues, and goods of the Hospitals of Edward King of England the Sixth, of Christ, Bridewell, and Saint Thomas the Apostle, Lords of the Manor of Pewsey, in the county of Wilts, and to their successors and assigns for ever, licence to have, hold, and enjoy an open and public market in every week, on Tuesday, within the town of Pewsey, in the said county of Wilts, for buying and selling of corn, grain, and hay, and such like commodities, and all manner of provisions of victual for mankind, and all goods, wares, and merchandise commonly bought and sold in markets, together with reasonable toll, and together also with stallage and pidge, and all liberties, privileges, remedies, emoluments, and incidents to the same market belonging; and that an inquisition will be taken on such writ on Monday the 10th day of June next, at the house of Thomas Rogers, commonly called or known by the name or sign of the Duke's Arms Inn, situate in the town of Marlborough, in the said county of Wilts, at the hour of twelve o'clock at noon of the same day.—Dated this 20th day of May 1822.
