Given under my hand, the 2d day of November 1822,

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of September 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Tuesday the eighth day of October next, to Tuesday the twenty-sixth day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of August 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Annotto Bay, in the island of Jamaica, on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of July 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should be suspended for the space of one year; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the date hereof, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia be suspended for the space of one year from the date of this Order.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of May 1821,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to direct the distribution of any reward awarded by the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise to the Officers of the Army, Navy, or Marines, for apprehending smugglers, in such manner as His Majesty shall be pleased to appoint," it was enacted that in all cases wherein the Commissioners of Customs or Excise of England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively, shall award any sum not exceeding twenty pounds as aforesaid, to any officer, officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for any person so arrested, convicted, or committed to prison as aforesaid, the same shall be divided and distributed in such proportions, and according to such rules, regulations, and orders, as His Majesty shall, by His Order or Orders in Council, or by His Royal Proclamation in that behalf, be pleased to direct and appoint:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said powers, His late Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the seventeenth of September one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, to direct and appoint that the bounty money awarded for the arrest of any person or persons arrested, convicted, and committed to prison, according to the provision of the laws above recited, by any officer or officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall be divided and distributed amongst such officers, non-commissioned officers, petty officers, seamen, or privates of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as aforesaid, according to the rules and regulations directed and provided by His late Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of October one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, for the distribution of the shares of any such seizures as are, or shall, by virtue of any Acts relating to the trade and revenues of His Majesty's dominions, be payable to and amongst the commanders, officers, and crews of His Majesty's ships or vessels of war:

And whereas it is expedient that the said rules and regulations shall be in part altered, viz. so far as they relate to seizures made on shore by persons acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and that in lieu thereof other rules and regulations should be directed and appointed for the distribution of the reward granted in such case or cases: His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that the said Order in Council of the seventeenth of September one thousand eight hundred and nineteen be henceforth revoked, so far as relates to sums awarded for seizures made on shore by persons under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and no further; and the same is hereby so far revoked, saving only as to sums awarded for seizures made prior to the date hereof, which shall be distributed according to the former Order:

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct and appoint that all sums awarded, saving as above excepted seizures made prior to the date hereof, by the Commissioners of Customs or Excise in England, Scotland and Ireland, to persons under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the arrest on shore of any person or persons for abreach of the laws as above described, shall be paid in the following proportions, to and for the benefit of the person or persons who shall actually make the arrest, viz.

| To the person or persons who shall actually make the arrest. | Three fourth parts of the reward to be divided in equal proportions, if more than one person shall actually make the arrest. |
| To the officer or officers being present, of the party of men, to which the person or persons making the arrest shall belong. | One fourth part of the reward to be divided, if more than one officer of the party shall be so present, as follows, To the officer commanding the party, two shares. To each of the other officers, one share. |

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to cause His Majesty's pleasure, hereby signified, to be duly complied with. Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 18th of May 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Commissions signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Somerset.

North Somerset Yeomanry.

Richard Strachey, Esq. to be Captain. Dated 7th October 1822.

West Somerset Yeomanry.

Charles John Kemys-Tynte, Gent. to be Lieutenant. Dated 12th October 1822.

John Payne, Gent. to be Cornet. Dated as above.

Whitehall, October 21, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that, about ten o'clock on the night of Friday the 27th ultimo, a fire broke out at Hawkins-Hall, the property of Samuel Heathcote Unwin Heathcote, Esq. in the parish of Datchworth, in the county of Hertford, which entirely consumed the barns, stables, and out-buildings, together with sundry stacks, &c. and that there is every reason to believe that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said premises on fire), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

GEORGE CANNING.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Unwin Heathcote, and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the Norwich Fire-Office is also hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The first-mentioned reward to be paid by U. Heathcote, Esq. of Shephalbury; and the last-mentioned reward to be paid by Mr. L. Franks, Agent to the Norwich Fire-Office.

Whitehall, November 1, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that, on the night of Thursday the 26th September last, some person or persons unknown did wilfully and maliciously set fire to and destroy three barns and a lin-hay, with a quantity of corn and implements of husbandry, on Brightley Farm, and two barns and a pound-house, with a quantity of cyder, &c. on Winson Farm, both in the parish of Chittlehampton, in the county of Devon, belonging to the Right Honourable Lord Rolle and his tenants;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by Lord Rolle, to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such black or Dantzic beer should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such black or Dantzic beer should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such black or Dantzic beer, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 15th day of June 1822,

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws for the prevention of Smuggling," after reciting (among other things) that His late Majesty, by His Royal Proclamation, dated the first day of January 1801, was pleased, with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and appoint what ensign or colours should be borne at sea by merchant ships or vessels belonging to any of His Majesty's subjects, thereby charging and commanding all His Majesty's subjects whatsoever, that they should not presume to wear in any of their ships or vessels His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, nor any pendants nor any such colours as are usually worn by His Majesty's ships, without particular warrant for their so doing from His Majesty, or His High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral for the time being; it is enacted, that if any person or persons shall presume to hoist, carry, or wear, in or on board any ship or vessel, fishing-boat, or other vessel, or boat whatever, belonging to any of His Majesty's subjects, whether the same be merchant or otherwise, His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, or any pendant or colours such as are commonly worn by His Majesty's ships, or any Jack, flag, pendant or colours whatever made in imitation of or resembling those of His Majesty, or any kind of pendant whatever, without such warrant as aforesaid, or any other ensign or colours than the ensign or colours prescribed by the said Proclamation to be worn, the master or other person having charge of such ship, vessel or boat, or the owner or owners thereof being on board the same, and every other person so offending shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of £500. to be recovered with costs of suit as in the said Act is mentioned; and whereas His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, a Jack made in resemblance thereof, hath been the usual signal displayed and kept flying for pilots to come on board merchant ships and vessels on the coasts of this United Kingdom: we do therefore, by virtue of the power and authority so reposed in us, hereby warrant and empower every master or other person having the charge and command of any merchant ship or vessel to hoist and keep flying His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, or a Jack resembling the same, as a signal for a pilot whenever and so often as the same may be necessary.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Widows of Commissioned and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, receiving pensions from the Charity established for their relief, will be paid their pensions due 30th of September last, at No. 10, New-Square, Lincoln's-Inn, by Edward Finch Hatton, Esq. the Paymaster of the Charity, viz.

The Widows of Flag-Officers, Superannuated Rear-Admirals, Captains, Commanders, Lieutenants, and Masters, on Monday the 11th instant;

The Widows of Surgeons, Pursers, and Boat-swains, on Tuesday the 12th instant;

And the Widows of Gunners and Carpenters, on Wednesday the 13th instant; and on every succeeding Thursday, between the hours of ten and twelve.

And notice is further given, that remittance bills will be sent on the 11th instant, to those Widows resident in the country, who have requested to be paid their pensions near their respective residences.

J. W. Croker.

Navy-Office, October 24, 1822.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of July to the 30th of September 1822, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

- On the 4th, 5th, and 6th of November, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.
- On the 7th, 9th, 11th, 12th, and 13th of November, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.
- On the 14th and 16th of November, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, the said Attornies are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th of September 1822, will commence paying on the 4th of November 1822; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed. G. Smith.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

Contracts for supplying Convicts confined on board Hulks, with Provisions, Clothing, Necessaries, Bedding, Coals, Candles, Oil, and Soap.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, October 24, 1822.

SUCH persons as are desirous of contracting to supply the above-mentioned articles, for the use of Convicts confined on board Hulks at Portsmouth, Woolwich, Sheerness, and Chatham, may receive particulars of the contracts at this Office, between the hours of ten and four, and deliver their tenders at the Commissariat-Office, sealed up and directed to the Superintendent of Convicts, marking thereon "Tender for on or before Thursday the 14th November; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day; nor will any proposal be noticed unless made on or annexed to a printed particular, and the prices inserted in words at length; nor unless a letter be subjoined to such proposal, signed by persons of known property engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the sum expressed in the particulars, for the due performance of the contract.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place, November 2, 1822.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Managers and Directors of the Lottery will draw one thousand tickets, on Tuesday the 12th instant, being the second day of drawing the fourth lottery for 1821, at Coopers'-Hall, in Basinghall-Street, within the City of London. L. Hesse.

British Linen Company's Bank, Edinburgh, October 29, 1822.

THE Directors of the British Linen Company hereby give notice, that a Quarterly General Court of Proprietors will be held at their Office here, on Monday the 2d of December next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, in terms of their charter.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WE, Commissioners appointed by an Act of the 26th Geo. 3. cap. 31, intituled "An Act for vesting certain sums in Commissioners at the end of every quarter of a year, to be by them applied to the Reduction of the National Debt," do hereby certify, that the Capital Stock which has been purchased by and transferred to us on account of the Public Funded Debts of Great Britain and Ireland funded therein consolidated, up to the 5th day of July 1822 inclusive, is as follows: viz.

Notice to the Creditors of Philip Hay, of Balmakewan, one of the Partners of David Lindsay and Co. General Agents, in Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, October 29, 1822.

JAMES MARSHALL, Accountant, in Edinburgh, hereby intimates, that he has been appointed and confirmed Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Philip Hay; and that the Sheriff of Edinburgh has fixed Monday the 18th day of November, and Tuesday the 3d day of December both next, for the public examinations of the Bankrupt and others connected with his affairs, within the Sheriff-Clerk's Office, Edinburgh, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon. Notice is also hereby given, that on the day following the last diet of examination, being Wednesday the 4th day of December next, a general meeting of the Creditors will be held within the Royal Exchange Coffee-House, Edinburgh, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon; and another meeting will be held on Tuesday the 17th day of December next, at the same place and hour, for the purpose of lodging claims, choosing Commissioners and giving directions to the Trustee for the recovery and disposal of the Bankrupt's estate.

The Creditors are required, in terms of the Statute, to lodge their claims and grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereon, at or previous to these meetings; under certification, that if this is not done by the 19th day of July next, the Creditors neglecting will have no share in the first distribution of the Bankrupt's funds.

Notice to the Creditors of John Fleming and Son, Merchants, in Langloan, and of John Fleming, senior, and James Fleming, the Individual Partners of that Concern.

October 26, 1822.

THE Trustee requests a general meeting of the Creditors of the said John Fleming and Son, and individual Partners, upon Wednesday the 13th day of November next, within the Writing-Chambers of Alexander Morrison, 67, Ingram-Street, Glasgow, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, for the purpose of instructing the Trustee as to the disposal of the outstanding debts due to the estate.

Notice to the Creditors of Duncan Campbell, Graziér and Cattle-Dealer, at Graensay, in the Island of Islay.

October 28, 1822.

DUNCAN SMITH, Merchant, in Greenock, hereby intimates, that he has been confirmed Trustee upon the sequestrated estate of the said Duncan Campbell; and, upon his application, the Sheriff Substitute of Argyleshire, at Inveraray, has fixed Friday the 8th and Friday the 22d day of November next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon each day, within the Sheriff-Court-Hall, Inveraray, for the public examinations of the Bankrupt and others connected with his affairs.

The Trustee farther intimates, that two general meetings of the Creditors will be held,—the first upon Saturday the 23d day of November next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, within Spencer's New Inn, Inveraray, and the other upon Friday the 6th day of December next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, within the Writing-Chambers of Macpherson and MacLachlan, head of Virginia-Street, Glasgow, for the purposes mentioned in the Statute.

Finally, the Trustee hereby requires the Creditors who have not already lodged their claims, with oaths of verity thereto, in his hands, to do so on or before the 27th day of July next, being ten calendar months from the date of the sequestration, otherwise they will get no share of the first distribution of the Bankrupt estate.
