- Marquess of Anglesey.
- Earl Bathurst.
- Earl of Liverpool.
- Earl of Lonsdale.

THE SOVEREIGN.

The Sovereign and the Knights Companions being seated, the Chancellor, standing in his place on the left hand of His Majesty, signified to the Chapter the Sovereign's royal will and pleasure, that the vacant stall in the Royal Chapel of Saint George at Windsor be filled.

The suffrages were thereupon collected by the Chancellor (beginning with the Junior Knight Companion), and, by him, presented to the Sovereign, who was pleased to command his Lordship to declare, and he accordingly declared, that the Most Honourable Francis-Charles Marquess of Hertford had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Then, by the Sovereign's command, the Marquess (being already a Knight) was received at the door of the Chapter-Room by the Marquess of Anglesey and Earl Bathurst, the two Junior Knights Companions present, and conducted between them to His Majesty, preceded by Garter, carrying the ensigns of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion, and by Black Rod.

The Marquess of Hertford, kneeling near the Sovereign, and Garter presenting, on his knee, the Garter, His Majesty, assisted by His Royal Highness the Duke of York and His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence, the two Senior Knights Companions present, buckled it on his Lordship's left leg; the Chancellor pronouncing the usual admonition.

Garter next presented the ribband with the George; and His Majesty, with the assistance of the aforesaid two Senior Knights Companions, put the same over the Marquess's left shoulder; the Chancellor pronouncing the admonition.

The Marquess, having kissed the Sovereign's hand, and received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions, withdrew.

The Chapter being ended, Garter, by command of the Sovereign, called over the Knights Companions, and a procession was made back to the private apartment of His Majesty, in the order as before.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c

WHEREAS by His late Majesty's Royal Proclamation, bearing date the 1st day of January 1801, and by divers Statutes now in force, His Majesty's subjects are prohibited from hoisting, carrying, or wearing in any of their ships or vessels, His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, or any pendants, or any such colours as are usually worn by His Majesty's ships, without particular warrant for their so doing from His Majesty, or His High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral for the time being :

And whereas it has been represented to us that the Union Jack hoisted at the top-mast head (or fore-top-mast head of vessels having more than one mast), is a general and well understood signal for a pilot, which it would be inexpedient at present to alter :

We do therefore, by virtue of the power and authority vested in us, hereby warrant and authorize all His Majesty's subjects to hoist the Union Jack at the top-mast-head of their ships or vessels where there is but one mast, or at the fore-top-mast-head where there are more than one mast, as a signal for a pilot ; but strictly prohibiting the wearing or hoisting the said Jack for any other purpose whatsoever, or longer than is necessary for the procuring a pilot :

And whereas the proper flags, which by the said Proclamation the ships and vessels of His Majesty's subjects are authorized to wear, are not sufficient to enable them to make signals without the addition of some other colors ;

We do further warrant and authorize all His Majesty's subjects to hoist on board their ships and vessels, by way of signal only, any colors (except pendants and the Union Jack), provided such colors shall not be hoisted in the place where similar colours are usually worn in His Majesty's ships and vessels :

And whereas it has been represented to us that certain signals have been heretofore established and agreed upon, and are now in use amongst His Majesty's subjects, wherein pendants and the Union Jack are employed, and that it would be inexpedient to prohibit the use of the said signals, until reasonable time for substituting some other description of colors in lieu of pendants and the Union Jack be allowed ;

We do further warrant and authorize all His Majesty's subjects to hoist and use, for signals only, pendants and the Union Jack, until the 1st of January 1824 and no longer ; upon and after which day no pendant is under any pretence whatsoever to be hoisted in the ships or vessels of any of His Majesty's subjects, nor the Union Jack, except only, as before provided, as the signal for a pilot.
