"And it is hereby further ordered, that the said Registrar shall not record or accept for registration, any such deed, conveyance, transfer, written contract, or other instrument as aforesaid, unless all and every the persons executing the same shall, by themselves, or by their attorney or attorneys lawfully authorised in that behalf, in manner hereinafter mentioned, appear before him: the said Registrar, and acknowledge such deed, conveyance, transfer, written contract, or other instrument, as and for his, her, or their act and deed."

"And it is hereby further ordered, that in case any such deed, conveyance, transfer, written contract, or other instrument, shall not be so acknowledged as aforesaid by all the parties thereto in person, but shall by such parties, or some of them, be acknowledged by their, his, or her attorney or attorney; the said Registrar shall not record any such document as aforesaid; or receive the same for registration, unless the person or persons acknowledging the same, as the attorney or attorneys of the parties thereto, or of any of them, shall be expressly authorised and empowered to make such acknowledgment on behalf of the persons for whom such acknowledgment is made, by some written power of attorney or authority contained in the body of such deed, conveyance, transfer, written contract, or other instrument, or indorsed thereupon or annexed thereto; and which written power of attorney or authority shall, by the said Registrar, be recorded as forming part of the document in which it is contained, or upon which it may be indorsed, or to which it may be annexed: provided also, that the acknowledgment of any absent person, by attorney, shall not be taken by the said Registrar, unless the execution by such absent person, of the said deed and power of attorney hath been duly proved, on oath, by a subscribing witness thereto, either before one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of Civil Justice in and for the said Colony, or before the Chief Magistrate of some city or corporate town or borough in Great Britain or Ireland, or before some resident Governor or Commander in Chief, for the time being, of some of His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations, or before some British Ambassador, Envoy, or Consul in some foreign state or country, and certified under the hand of the said Judge (if in the said Island of Saint Lucia), or under the corporate seal of the said city, town, or borough, or under the hand and seal of the said Governor or Commander in Chief, Ambassador, Envoy, or Consul."

"And it is hereby further ordered, that all deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, and other instruments which may have been made and executed at any time previously to the 30th day of May 1814, whereby or by virtue whereof any person or persons hath or have, or claims or claim to have any mortgage, hypothecation, lien, charge, or incumbrance upon any lands, houses, buildings, or other immoveable property, situate within the said Island of Saint Lucia, or upon any slaves resident within or belonging to that island; and also all deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, or other instruments which may have been made, signed, or executed at any time since the 30th day of May 1814, whereby any lands, houses, buildings, or other immoveable property, situate within the said Colony of Saint Lucia, or whereby any slaves resident and being within the said Colony, or whereby any right or interest in or to any such lands, houses, buildings, immoveable property, or slaves, may have been conveyed, transferred, alienated, sold, mortgaged, charged, or in anywise whatsoever affected, or which in any manner relate to or concern any such lands, houses, buildings, immoveable property, or slaves, shall also be acknowledged before the said Registrar, and by him recorded at length."

"Provided always, and it is hereby further ordered, that it shall not be necessary to make an acknowledgment before the said Registrar, in the manner hereinbefore mentioned, of the execution of such deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, and other instruments, which may have been heretofore made and executed, and which are hereby required to be recorded as aforesaid; but such last mentioned deeds and covenants, transfers,
