Stockholme, Decemb. 20. HE States of this Kingdom are still , Allembled; The King at their first meeting demanded of them & Supply of 15 Tun of Gold, that is 16 hundred thousand Florins, to enable him to put himself into the pollure which the present conjuncture requires ; but fince, his Majefty has let them know, that he will at this time be latisfied with half that Sum, upon condition, That if a War break out, he shall then have the whole yearly during the War; which it's not doubted but the States will agree to. Yesterday fix Deputies of the Reafants were by the Kings command committed toy Prison, for having spoken to the King with a liljerty that did not become them. They seem here very intent upon their Maritine Preparations ; Three or four hundred new raifed Men are lately fept down to the Fleet, and more are raifing; all the Officers have orders to be ready upon the Admirals Summons, and are promifed their Arrears; Several Merchant Ships are taken into the Kings fervice, and it's faid they will have near 40 Sail of Ships ready to put to Sea in the first of the Spring. Vienna, Fau. 3. We have an account from Hun-

Vienna, Faz. 3. We have an account from Hungary, that the Turks have again attempted to make them felves safters of the Hand Schut, but that they were forced to retire with lofs; but it being feared they will not eafily quit this defign, the Emperor is fending feveral Regiments to frengthen the Troops quartered in the Gid Hland, Count Wallaffalm, whom the Emperor has appointed to go his Ambaffador to the King of Poland, will begin his Journey in few days. The relolution that was taken for the demolifhing the Suburbs of this City is changed, and in flead thereof it is now refelved to fortike them, and to lodge a good Body of Men in them. The Magistrates of this City having examined the Lift of their Burghers that are tapable to bear Arms, find they do amount to zoooo men fit for fervice. The States of the Lower Auffria are appointed to meet the 1rth Inflant. We have advice that the Plague is broke out at Cafebar in Sper Hungary, and that Count Teckeley was thercupon removed from thence.

Hamburg, Hanuary 8. From Berlin they write, that the Elector of Brandenburg had answered the Imperial Minister upon his defining him to meet the Emperor at Ratubonne, that his Age and Gont would not fuffer him to undertake such a Journy, but that if his Imperial Majesty pleased he would fend an Embassie thither that should supply his place.

Exancfort. Fanuary z. The Baron de Walderdonf¹⁷ having performed his Committion to the Electors on the Roise, is returned for Vienna. From Rabisbonne they write, That the Emperor had written a Letter to the Dyet, which they received the 30 paft, very earnefily exhorting them to make a fpeedy and effectual provision for the defence and focurity of the Empire.

Bruffels, Fanuary 8. This Evening arrived here the Count of Mansfelt, Ambaliador from the Emperor to the King of Spain : His Excellency the Marquils de Grana lont a Person of Quality with his own Coaches to meet him at Tilmont, and to Con+ duct, him hither, and has lodged him in the Palace ? he will make fome thort thay here, and takes as it faid, his Journey through France, in cafe his Se-cretary be releafed out of the Baffille, as it is expected he will upon the liberty of the Sieur Fayel, a Domestick of the French Minister at Vienna, who the Emperor, as we have already told you, com-manded thould be put into the hands of the Governor of Brlfac, in order to his being fent to France, with Authentick Copies of the Examina? tions that have been taken concerning him. We are as yet very quiet in these parts, and do not head of any confiderable motion of the French Troops in the new/Conquests, nor of any preparation owards it ;/However his Excellency is taking the best measures he can for the defence and security of these Provinces, and is endeavouring fo to dispole things, that he may, when ever there is occalion, have a good Army in the Field; We do not bear that his Excellency is tends to raife any new Troops; but it is faid, that his Excellency is Treating with fome at the Princes of Germany in order to their furnithing him, when he fall defire it, a good Podule for and hefden his Excellence will have Body of Men; and befines. his Excellence will have a Fond with the ratio Recruits for the Troops that will not foot, which, it's faid, may be done in very hittle time when ever this gons about.

gruffels, Fanuary 12. His Excellency has pub-lifhed very firict Orders, requiring all Officers to repair to their respective Commands, and has written to the feveral Governors of places, and to the Maifres de Camp to give him an ac-count of the names of fuch as shall be absent from their Garilons on the 15 Inflant, Count Mansfeldt has received the Compliments of all the Minifers and Nobility, and is very kindly treated by his Excellency; It is faid he will make a flay here of a Month or fix weeks. The Counters d'Egmond is lately dead, to the great grief, as well as los, of her Family. The King of Spain has, as we are informed.) approved of what his Excellency propoled concerning the continuing only fix Spanish Regi-ments in the fervice of these Provinces, which are to confift of 1000 Men each; and accordingly the Regiments of Cafillio and Grachal are reformed to recruit the other Bodies, and the Regiment which the Marquis of Bedmar had is given to Don Castillia, 1 and Count Grachal has the Regiment of Don Nune miez de Salados, who is made Governor of Newport; and Don Antonio Medrano is made Governor and High-Bailiff of Dendermond.

Bruffels, Fannary 15. The Term given to Spain by the most Christian King expires this day; The Governors of leveral places that are here, are returning to their Commands, but the Prince de Chimay. bimay, Governor of Luxemlurg, will remain here et lone days. Our Lett is nom Luxemburg of he roth Initant tell us, That the French had firbid the Country People to c riv any Corn to that Citys The Conditions on which the Cuffoms are to be let to farm were published yefferday, but there being a new Tariff or Book of Rates under Confideration, they will not proceed upon the faid Farm till that be fettled. The Marquifs de Riebelieu and Madamoifelle Mazarine, have been Married at Liere in this Province, and have taken a Houle there. Great preparations are making here for the keeping the Fealt of St. Anthony on the 17 Inflant.

Paris, 7anus, y 16. The Affairs between this Court and that of Rome, continue to te very much embroiled. The Archbifhop of this City having, by the Kings order, appointed the Sieur Pirot to vifit all the Monafferies and other Commusities, in this Kingdom, where any Divinity-Schools are kept, and to requife the Profellors to teach in the faid Schools the Propolitions of the lergy in their laft Affembly, Some have declared, That they cannot meddle with a matter of that importance, at leaft, till they themfelves are better infructed therein than yet they are. The Letters we receive from Rome tell us, That the Pope had refuled his Bulls to the Abbot Savary, whom the King has lately promoted to a Bifhoprick; and that there is very finall appearance of the Cardinal d'Effree's fucceeding in his Negotiation there. We formerly gave you an account of the arrival of Don Carlos Antonio del Caftillio, whom the King of Spain fent to perform his Compliments at this Court upon the Birth of the Duke of Burgundy, and that meeting with dificulties upon the Orders he had to decline giving this young Prince the Title of Duke of Burgundy, he had feat a Gourier to Spain; and now we can tell you, that having received Directions from Madrid thereupon, he demanded his Audiences of the King, Queen, &c. to which he was Conducted the 9th Inflant.

Whitehall, Fanuary 10. This day Sir Charles Littleton, Sir Richard How, Colonel Beeflon, and other Confiderable Planters and Merchants of Famaica, delivered to the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee for Trade and Foreign Plantations, the following Addrefs to his Majefly from that Ifland, which their Lords his afterwards prefented to his Majefly, who being Attended by Sir Charles Littleton, and the other Gentlemen and the Patter that he was very well fatisfied with this Addrefs, and the Dutiful Acknowledgments of his Subjects in Famica, and that he was refolved to he very kind to them.

His Majesties Council, and the Gentlemen of the Affembly for His Island of Jamaica, being met at St. Jago de la Voga the 21 day of September 1682. by order of his Extellency the Governor, Sir Thomsa Lynch, humbly befeech the Lord Prefident, and Lords of His Majesties most Honourable Privy Council for Governing His Majesties Foreign Plantations, to prefent to His Most Sacred Majesty this their most Humble Address and Petition.

May it please Your Majefty.

H Aving received more frequent Tellimonies of Tour Royal Grace and Bounty iban others of Tour Subjects, we ought to have been the first to have made Profession of our Loyalty, Duty, and Gratitude to Tour Sacred Majelly, but the unsciledness of our Affairs, and that valt distance we are at from Tour Kingdom of England, may move Tour Majelty (the best and most gracious of Kings) to pardon the Omisfon, and accept a late, but hearty and humble tender of our Duty.

Diead SIR,

We do (as we have the greateft reafon in the World for it) blefs God, and mult humby thank Your Maje (by for Your Gare in Protecting ita, for Your Grace and Fuffice in Affimilating our Government to that of our Native Country of England; for Your Muje fies favouring us with an Order for fupply of Negroes at reafonable Rates, and for thole many repeated Als of Grace, Fulfice, Bounty and Protection, which Your Majely hath been pleafed to confer upon us, and this Your great and flourishing Colony.

SIR,

To evidence in some measure our Thankfulness and Duty, we most humbly present to Your Majesty an Act of Revenue, formed by Advice of our present Governor, which, with our former Body of Laws, we hope, quadrates with those Orders and Directions, the Lords of Your Majesties Privy Council sent hither. We prostrate them and our selves at Your Majesties Royal Feet, humbly beseeching Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to pass them, considering how much the Establishing of known Laws will contribute to the saturfation of Your Subsets, and prosperity of this Your Majesties Colony.

Dread Soveraign,

Although we are the remotelf of all Your Subjetts from Your Royal Throne, yet have we (to our great trouble) understood, there may have been defigns to juburet and flake it, and that fome would have imposed on Your Majelit, others altered the Successfron, and facluded Your Kiyal Brother, and in order to that (or worse ends) would have entred into Seditions affociations, dl which we utterly detest, and humbly beyech Your Majelity to believe, that we shall always obey Your Commands, dutifully revere Your Person, and faithfully support Your Majesties Government and Lawful Successfron, to the utmost of our power; The long and happy continuance whereof, both in Church and shate, we heartily pray for.
