Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 11, 1823.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at Buckingham-Palace, on Wednesday the 23d instant, to celebrate His Majesty's Birth-day.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders will wear their Collars.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 3d of April 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year, it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 31st of January 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His Majesty's reign (chapter 104), intituled "An Act to continue, until the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, the bounty to vessels employed in the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights; and to authorise His Majesty to alter the times for the sailing of the said vessels, and any of the limitations contained in the Acts for allowing the said bounty," His Majesty is authorised, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued for that purpose, to suspend, or vary, any or either of the limitations and restrictions contained in the several Acts granting bounties to vessels employed in the fisheries carried on in the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, in such manner as may appear expedient, and as may be expressed and set forth in such Order or Orders in Council; And whereas by an Act, passed in the thirty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Third (chapter 22), it is enacted, "that every ship or vessel having on board one apprentice for every fifty tons burthen, every such apprentice not exceeding the age of twenty years, nor being under twelve years at the time he shall be indentured, shall be deemed properly fitted and qualified,
