

tender, likewise for the counties comprising North and South Wales, as must also the several counties in North Britain; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be supplied by virtue of the same, the amount of the stamps on the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, will be refunded to him.

Particulars of the contracts may be had upon application at this Office, between the hours of ten and four; and of the Barrack-Masters at Guernsey, Jersey, and the Isle of Man.

Office for Taxes, Somerset-Place,
August 12, 1823.

PURSUANT to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His late Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £83 and under £84 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes,
E. Bates, Secretary.

LONDON DOCKS.

London Dock-House, Princes-Street,
Bank, August 8, 1823.

WHEREAS sundry packages of merchandize and other goods remain in the Warehouses and on the Quays of the London Dock Company, for which no claimants have appeared for several years last past; the Court of Directors of the London Dock Company do hereby give notice, that it is their intention to put the said goods, packages, and their contents, up to public sale, for the payment of the charges due thereon, on the 8th of September next, and other subsequent days, previously to which any information respecting the same will be given to any claimant, upon application being made at the Superintendent's Office; and if any person or persons can satisfactorily prove that any of the said goods or packages belong to them, they will be delivered to them or their order, upon payment of the charges. And in case any such goods or packages and their contents do not sell for a sum sufficient to pay the charges due thereon, the owner or owners will be held responsible for the deficiency; and in cases where the said goods and the packages, with their contents, when sold produce more money than the charges and expences of sale, the overplus will be paid to any person or persons who may prove themselves entitled thereto.

George Robinson, Secretary.

Amicable Society's Office, Serjeant's-Inn,
Fleet-Street, August 12, 1823.

THE Corporation of the Amicable Society for a Perpetual Assurance-Office doth hereby give notice, that at Midsummer last (Old Style), the se-
