Navy-Office, October 24, 1823.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of July to the 30th September 1823, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 3d, 4th, and 5th of next month, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 6th, 8th, 10th, 11th, and 12th of next month, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 13th and 15th of next month, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, the said Attornies are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy,

"and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th of September 1823, will commence paying on the 3d of November; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

J. W. Morton, Deputy Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining an inclined plane, rail-way, or tram-road, with proper works and conveniencies for the passage of waggons, carts, and other carriages, properly constructed, to extend from the town of Redruth along the south side of Carnarvon, near Tingtaug Mine, and the village of Carbarrack, through the Consolidated and the Union Mines by Bissoe Bridge, Carnon Turupike Gate, and Devoran Quay to Point Quay, in the parish of Feock, with a branch to Wheal Buller, and a branch from Nangiles or Twelve Heads to Chacewater and Wheal Busy; which said inclined plane, rail-way, or tram-road, and branches, will pass through the several parishes of Redruth, Gwennap, Kenwyn, Kea, and Feock, in the county of Cornwall: also to restore, improve, and maintain the navigation of Restrongett Creek, from Restrongett Passage to Carnon Bridge, and for constructing a public wharf or wharfs on the said Creek or Navigation; which said Navigation and wharf or wharfs will be in the parishes of Mylor, Feock, and Ferran-asworthal, in the county aforesaid.—Dated 4th September 1823.

Wm. Davey, jun. Solicitor, Redruth.
