Further notice to Debtors and Creditors of Mr. Thomas Brown, late of the Hotel, Lyme-Regis, Dorset.

Lyme-Regis, December 8, 1823.

Notice is hereby given, that all persons to whom the said Thomas Brown stood indebted at the time of his executing the Deed of Assignment of his estate and effects, in July last, and have omitted to send in their accounts, as desired by a former advertisement, are now requested to give in particulars of their respective demands, on or before the 1st day of January next, to Messrs. Drayton and Davie, of Lyme-Regis aforesaid, the Trustees named in the said Deed, and in default they will be excluded receiving any benefit from the estate and effects of the said Thomas Brown, as a final dividend thereof will be immediately thereafter made to such Creditors as shall have executed the said Deed, and proved their debts; and all persons indebted to the said estate and effects are requested to pay their respective debts to the said Trustees aforesaid, on or before the said 1st day of January next, or they will be sued for recovery thereof.

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD.

Whereas John Crane, a man of weak intellect, left his home, at Dundonald, County Down, Ireland, in September 1812.—It is believed he went to Scotland, and if now living he is afflicted with rupture, is about 55 years of age, five feet eight inches high, dark hair, marked with the small pox, grey eyes, red beard and whiskers, full faced, and a little round shouldered; had on when he left his home a short drab coat, striped waistcoat, corduroy breeches, and grey stockings.—Any person who will discover his present residence (that he may be comfortably provided for) to George Dyson, Esq. of Hackney, Mr. Wm. Parnell, of Botolph-Lane, or Mr. James Moore French, of the Royal-Exchange, London, shall receive a reward of One Hundred Pounds sterling; and if any person can give a satisfactory account of the death of the said John Crane, a reward of Twenty Pounds sterling will be paid by the said George Dyson, Wm. Parnell, or James Moore French.

Marshal's-Office, Berbice.—Sale by Execution.
First Proclamation.

Whereas I, the undersigned, by virtue of authority received from His Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c. President of the Honourable the Courts of Justice, sole Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty of the Colony Berbice and its Dependencies, &c. &c. &c. dated 22d May and the 4th of June 1823, granted upon the petition of M. Daly, as the Attorney of the mercantile firm of Jones and Halliday of Demerara, plaintiff, versus John Quarliss, defendant, have caused to be taken in execution, and placed under sequestration, the coffee estate, called Plegt Anker, cum annexis, and 22 slaves, situate on the east bank of the River Berbice, with all its buildings, the property of the said Quarliss:

Be it therefore known, that I, the undersigned, or the Marshal at the time being, intend to sell at public execution sale (after the expiration of one year and six weeks, from the 5th day of June 1823), the before-named coffee estate, called Plegt Anker, with all its cultivations, slaves, buildings, and further appurtenances whatever thereto belonging, and specified in the inventory, now laying at the Marshal's Office, for the inspection of those concerned, subject, however, to a certain mortgage, in favour of John Farley, and vested on said plantation Plegt Anker, and 13 slaves, in order to recover, by execution sale of said estate, cum annexes, and slaves, such sum of money as wherefore the same has been taken in execution and placed under sequestration, all conformable to the regulations of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, dated the 20th day of December 1817, respecting the sale of estates by execution in this Colony.

This first Proclamation published as customary.—Berbice, August 31, 1823.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

[Inserted by Mr. Guitard, Notary-Public, No. 27, Birchbin-Lane, Cornhill.]

Summons by Edict.
