

Morgan, of Cardiff, in the county of Glamorgan, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 16, 1823

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that some evil-disposed person or persons did, on the night of the 27th of November last, wilfully and maliciously shoot at and wound Thomas Carter, the game-keeper of Sir Henry Philip Hoghton, Bart. near to a plantation in Hoghton, in the county of Lancaster, with intent to do him some grievous bodily harm;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually shot at the said Thomas Carter), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY-FIVE GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Sir H. P. Hoghton, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid, on conviction, by Messrs. Pilkington and Sons, Solicitors, at Preston, in the said county.

AFTER our hearty commendations—Having considered your report of the 24th ultimo, on a memorial from the Court of Directors of the East India Company, praying that their warehouses may be authorised for the deposit of goods under the Act of 4 Geo. 4, cap. 24, we do hereby approve of the warehouses in question being used for warehousing goods under the said Act, being the produce of places within their charter, from whatsoever place or by whomsoever imported; for which this shall be your warrant.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, this 26th day of November 1823.

WARWICKSHIRE MILITIA.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of the county of Warwick will be held at the Judges-House, in the borough of Warwick, on Tuesday the 13th day of January next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, for carrying into execution the laws relating to the militia and local militia in that part of Great Britain called England.—Dated the 26th day of December 1823.

Tho. Wilmot, Clerk of the General Meetings.

IN obedience to an order of the Committee, appointed by the Court of Common Council to carry into execution the several Acts of Parliament made and passed for the improvement of the River Thames, westward of London-bridge, in pursuance of an Act of the fiftieth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending, altering, and enlarging the powers of two Acts, passed in the fourteenth and seventeenth years of His said Majesty, in relation to the navigation of the River Thames, westward of London-bridge, within the liberties of the city of London, and for the further improvement of the said navigation;" and also of another Act of the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers of four Acts of His said Majesty for improving the navigation of the River Thames, &c." I do hereby give notice, that, between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 25th day of June next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 25th day of June next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the sum of £33,900, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Act of the fiftieth George the Third, under the common seal of this city, and made payable to me, my executors, administrators, or assigns (by endorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office, at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same, and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine, viz:

Twelve bonds, of one hundred pounds each, numbered 1 to 12, both inclusive.

Richard Clark, Chamberlain.
