

DANISH LOAN FOR £3,000,000.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, cap. 24, sec. 3, intituled "An Act to make more effectual provision for permitting goods imported to be secured in warehouses or other places, without payment of duty on the first entry thereof," it is enacted, "that it shall and may be lawful for the importer, proprietor, or consignee of any goods or merchandise whatever, and of what nature or kind soever (tea only excepted), imported from any port or place whatever (the dominions of the Emperor of China excepted), to lodge in warehouses or other approved places (but for the purpose of exportation only), without payment of any duty, either of Customs or Excise, at the time of the first entry of such goods or merchandise, although the importation may be in any way prohibited or restrained by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the commencement of this Act;" And whereas after reciting, "that it is expedient for the protection of the manufactures of this country, that the several goods and merchandise, the importation of which hath been prohibited by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, but which, by virtue of this Act, may be imported and warehoused for the purpose of exportation only, should be lodged and deposited in warehouses or places of special security,"

It is further enacted, "that all such goods and merchandise, the importation whereof hath been so prohibited, but which shall at any time after the commencement of this Act be imported under the provisions of this Act, shall be lodged and secured, and kept separate from all other goods and merchandise, in warehouses which are or shall be erected and built in places inclosed by and surrounded with walls, or in such other places of special security as shall be approved and appointed by warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them, and in no other warehouse or place whatsoever;"

We, the undersigned Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the powers vested in us as aforesaid, do hereby approve of the following warehouses at the East India Docks, in the port of London, viz.

The warehouses in the Import Dock, on the South side, numbered from 1 to 7, and on the North side, numbered from 1 to 3; and the warehouses in the Export Dock, on the North side, numbered from 1 to 5;

For the reception and security of any goods, the produce of the East Indies, imported into the port of London, for the purpose of exportation only, under the rules, regulations, conditions, and securities of the said Act.

And we do hereby further direct, that such goods shall be kept separate from all other goods and merchandise whatever.

Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, the 30th day of December 1823.
