WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about seven o'clock in the afternoon of the 7th day of January instant, a warehouse, belonging to Messrs. George Duncan and James Currie Duncan, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Rope-Makers, situate in or near Brownlow-hill and St. Andrew-street, in Liverpool aforesaid, was discovered to be on fire, which totally consumed the same, and also a flour-mill adjoining, belonging to the said George Duncan, in the occupation of Thomas Middlehurst;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

GEORGE CANNING.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said
