

Crown-Office, January 27, 1824.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present
PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Liskeard.

The Honourable Edward Granville Eliot, commonly called Lord Eliot, of Port Eliot, in the county of Cornwall, in the room of the Honourable William Eliot, now a Peer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Whitehall, January 17, 1824

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about seven o'clock in the afternoon of the 7th day of January instant, a warehouse, belonging to Messrs. George Duncan and James Currie Duncan, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Rope-Makers, situate in or near Brownlow-hill and St. Andrew-street, in Liverpool aforesaid, was discovered to be on fire, which totally consumed the same, and also a flour-mill adjoining, belonging to the said George Duncan, in the occupation of Thomas Middlehurst;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof

GEORGE CANNING.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS, by the said George Duncan and James Currie Duncan; and

ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS, by the Eagle Insurance Office in London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for lighting with gas the city of Aberdeen, or parish of St. Nicholas, as well as the suburbs of said city, situated within the said parish of St. Nicholas, and the parish of Old Macliar, both in the county of Aberdeen.

Aberdeen, 17th January 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for erecting a patent wrought iron bar bridge of suspension upon and over the River Thames and the adjoining lands and premises, for carriages, carts, waggons, horses, cattle, and foot passengers, and for making the necessary roads and communications thereto; such intended bridge, lands, premises, roads, and communications, to pass over and lying in the Waters of the Thames within the Conservancy of the City of London and the several parishes of St. Botolph, Aldgate, and St. Catherine near the Tower, in the county of Middlesex; and St. John, Horselydown, and St. Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey; and the height of the said bridge to admit of ships and vessels to pass under it, at spring tides, without striking or lowering their masts.

Lavie, Oliverson, and Denby, Solicitors, Frederick's-place, Old Jewry.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enclosing lands, in the parish of Whiston, in the county of York," it is, amongst other things, enacted as follows, "That the said Commissioners shall, and are hereby required to inquire into and ascertain from the London Gazette, and by such other ways and means as they shall think proper, what has been the average price of good marketable wheat, in the county of York, during the term of seven years next preceding the first day of January now next ensuing; and shall in and by their award ascertain, and distinctly set forth, what quantity of such wheat shall in their judgement, according to such average prices, be equal in value to such yearly rents or sums of monies as are made to issue and become payable out of the said commons and ancient inclosures, within the manor of Whiston aforesaid, by the several owners or occupiers thereof; and it shall and may be lawful, as well for the said Rector and his successors, as for any one or more of the said owners and proprietors of lands and estates, subject to the payment of the said annual rents or sums of money respectively, who shall be assessed to the poor's rate at the sum of one hundred pounds and upwards, at their respective proper expence, by writing, under their respective hands, to apply at the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the west riding of the county of York, in the week after the Feast of Easter, after the expiration of seven years from the making of the said award (having given notice of such intended application in the London Gazette, and also in some newspaper usually circulated in the said county of York, in the month of January next preceding) to have two persons named and appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be (together with a third person, to be named and chosen by such two persons), arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining (by or from, or by means of, the London Gazette, so long as the returns of the average prices of corn and grain shall be published therein, and in case of no such publication, then by such ways or means as they shall think equitable or proper), the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of York, for the seven years then last past; which said three arbitrators or referees, or the major part of them, shall, by their report to be made and delivered to the Court of Quarter
