To be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Haydon v. Boney, with the approbation of James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the White Hart Inn, at Guildford, in the County of Surrey (instead of the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, as stated in the first advertisement), on Saturday the 13th day of March next, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, in one lot;

An estate, situate in the Parish of Oakham, in the County of Surrey, distant about 22 miles from London, and 7 miles from the market-town of Guildford, consisting of a dwelling-house, eight cottages and gardens, with suitable and convenient out-buildings, and 183A. 1R. 19P. of arable, meadow, pasture, orchard, and coppice land, in the occupation of Mr. Richard Boney, tenant at will, at a rent of 143l. 10s.

The estate is freehold, except a very small part, consisting of a barn, yard, stables, cow-house, cart-house, and pigstyes (not at the principal homestead), which is leasehold, for a long term of years.—The land-tax is redeemed.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London (where a plan of the estate may be seen); of Messrs. Jenkins and Abbott, Solicitors, New-Inn; Mr. William Price, Solicitor, Lincoln's-Inn; and of Messrs. Smallpiece and Shebbare, Solicitors, Guildford, Surrey.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Dawson against Wright, it is referred to John Springett Harrey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire whether John Marshall, the son of John Marshall, the testator in the said Cause, be living or dead, and if dead when he died, and whether he died in the lifetime of Martha Marshall, the widow of the said testator, and if he died, whether he was ever married, and fell any issue; and in case he survived the said Martha Marshall, to inquire who are his personal representatives?—The said John Marshall, the son, if living, or if he is dead, having survived the said Martha Marshall.—All persons claiming to be his personal representatives, are, on or before the 10th day of March next, to come in and prove their claims before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, in order that they may not peremptorily be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.—The said John Marshall was the son of John Marshall and Sarah, his wife (formerly Sarah Elliott, Spinster), who lived at Waterthorpe, in the Parish of Beighton, in the County of Derby, where the said John Marshall, the son, was born.—It is supposed that in the year 1796 he enlisted in the Louth Volunteers as a private soldier, but being an invalid he was not inrolled; that he was marched to Portsmouth, and when at Hilsey Barracks enlisted again into the Botany-Bay Rangers, and went, with the Captain who enlisted him, to London, and has not since been heard of by his family.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Hall against Hall, the Creditors of William Hall, late of Vale-Place, Hammersmith, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. deceased (who died in the month of May last), are, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 6th day of March next, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to the Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Clark against Tunks, the Creditors of Stephen Tunks, late of Ringwood, in the County of Hants, Banker and Brewer, deceased (who died on or about the 28th day of June 1821,) are, on or before the 8th day of March 1824, to come in and prove their debts before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Martinez against Goddard, the Creditors of John Harvey Goddard, late of West Woodgates, in the County of Dorset, Gentleman deceased (who died in the year 1797), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein James Vallance and others are plaintiffs, and John Ellis and John Bull are defendants, the Creditors of Sarah Mighell, late of Lewes, in the County of Sussex, Widow (who died on or about the 25th day of November 1815), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Corsbie and John Corsbie (carrying on business with Thomas King Creak, at Durand's-Wharf, Rotherhithe, in the County of Surrey, Mast and Block-Makers, Wharfingers, Dealers and Chapman), the said Joseph Corsbie and John Corsbie also carrying on trade in New Broad-Street-Court, London, as Merchants, under the firm of Joseph and John Corsbie), are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 13th day of February instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees, according to a compromise proposed for settling a suit now depending in the High Court of Chancery, intitled Bowles and others against Yorke and others, respecting the estate of Samuel Barnard, deceased, the particulars of which compromise will be stated at the meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees agreeing to the arrangement with the other Creditors of the said Samuel Barnard, deceased, and of the house of Barnard and Sons, heretofore
