Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1824.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 19th of January 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, the humble Memorial of Sir Henry Hallford, Baronet, Physician to His Majesty, and President of the College or Commonalty of the Faculty of Physic in London, setting forth, that the said President and College have, with great care, pains, and industry, revised, corrected, and reformed a book by them formerly published, intitled, Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis, prescribing and directing the manner of preparing all sorts of medicines therein contained, together with the true weights and measures by which they ought to be made; which book is now perfected and ready to be published, and it is conceived will contribute to the public good of His Majesty's subjects by preventing all deceits, differences, and uncertainties in making or compounding of medicines, if for the future the manner and form prescribed therein should be practised by apothecaries and others in their compositions of medicines; the Memorialist, therefore, most humbly prays, that His Majesty will be graciously pleased to enforce the observance thereof, in such manner as to His Majesty shall seem meet; His Majesty this day took the said Memorial into His Royal consideration, and being desirous to provide, in all cases, for the common good of His people, and being persuaded that the establishing the general use of the said book may tend to the prevention of such deceits in the making and compounding medicines, wherein the lives and health of His Majesty's subjects are so highly concerned, hath, therefore, thought fit, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, hereby to notify to all apothecaries and others concerned, to the intent they may not pretend ignorance thereof, that the said book, called Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis, is perfected and ready to be published; and His Majesty doth, therefore, strictly require, charge, and command all and singular apothecaries and others, whose business it is to compound medicines, or distil oils or waters, or make other extracts, within any part of His Majesty's kingdom of Great Britain called England, dominion of Wales, and town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, that they and every of them, immediately after the said Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis shall be printed and published, do not compound or make any medicine or medicinal receipt or prescription, or distil any oil or waters, or make other extracts that are or shall be in the said Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis mentioned or named, in any other manner or form than is or shall be directed, prescribed, and set down by the said book, and according to the weights and measures that are or shall be therein limited, except it shall be by the special direction or prescription of some learned physician in that behalf: And His Majesty doth hereby declare, that the offenders to the contrary shall not only incur His Majesty's just displeasure, but be proceeded against for such their contempt and offences according to the utmost severity of law.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th of November 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases, in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the subjects of His Majesty the King of Hanover, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions therein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twenty-first of February last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, which prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Crown-Office, February 17, 1824.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Ashburton.

Sir John Singleton Copley, Knt. His Majesty's Attorney General.

Commission in the 1st Troop of Dungleddy Cavalry, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Pembroke.

Cornet Morgan Rice James to be Lieutenant, vice Lloyd, resigned. Dated 2d February 1824.
Charles Bowen Allen, Gent. to be Cornet, vice James, promoted. Dated as above.

Whitehall, February 13, 1824

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the 23d day of November last, Mary Downes was found at Heaton Norris, in the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, inhumanly murdered by some person or persons unknown; and that by an inquest held on her body, it was found that she had been murdered by one James Horsefield, but there is reason to suppose that some other person or persons, besides the said James Horsefield, were engaged in the said murder;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the said murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually inflicted the mortal wound on the said Mary Downes), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL,

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FORTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Constables of the township of Heaton Norris aforesaid, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, besides the said James Horsefield, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

ARMY—HALF-PAY, PENSIONS, &c.

Army Pay-Office, Whitehall, London, February 16, 1824.

IT appearing evident to the Paymaster-General, from various representations made to him by claimants for Half-Pay, Pensions for Wounds, Retired Pay, Widows' Pensions, &c. that many Officers and others, residing in the country, are ignorant of the means by which, agreeably to the regulations of the Department, they may receive their allowances from this Office;

Notice is hereby given, that all Officers or other persons, on the List of Unattached General Officers, Half-Pay, Retired Full and Half-Pay, Military Pensions for Wounds, Widows' Pensions, Royal Bounty, or Compassionate Allowances, &c. may receive their pay or pension, as the case may be, in any one of the three following modes, viz.

By personal application at this Office; or through an Agent, resident in London, duly authorised by power of attorney; or by remittance, without any deduction or abatement whatever, by bills drawn out by this Office, in their favour, payable on demand by the Receivers-General of the Land Tax, the Collectors of Cess in Scotland, the Collectors of Customs or Collectors of Excise, in any part of the country, under the Act 47 Geo. 3, sess. 2, cap. 25.

All Officers or other persons desirous of receiving their pay or pensions, &c. in the mode last mentioned, should apply for special instructions and forms of affidavits, &c. by letter, addressed to the Right Honourable the Paymaster-General, Whitehall, London, when every information will be afforded to them.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, cap. 24, sec. 3, intituled "An Act to make more effectual provision for permitting goods imported to be secured in warehouses or other places, without payment of duty on the first entry thereof," it is enacted, "that it shall and may be lawful for the importer, proprietor, or consignee of any goods or merchandise whatever, and of what nature or kind soever (tea only excepted), imported from any port or place whatever (the dominions of the Emperor of China excepted), to lodge in warehouses or other approved places (but for the purpose of exportation only), without payment of any duty, either of Customs or Excise, at the time of the first entry of such goods or merchandise, although the importation may be in any way prohibited or restrained by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the commencement of this Act;" And whereas after reciting, "that it is expedient for the protection of the manufactures of this country, that the several goods and merchandises, the importation of which hath been prohibited by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, but which, by virtue of this Act, may be imported and warehoused for the purpose of exportation only, should be lodged and deposited in warehouses or places of special security,"

It is further enacted, "that all such goods and merchandise, the importation whereof hath been so prohibited, but which shall at any time after the commencement of this Act be imported under the provisions of this Act, shall be lodged and secured, and kept separate from all other goods and merchandise, in warehouses which are or shall be erected and built in places inclosed by and surrounded with walls, or in such other places of special security as shall be approved and appointed by warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them, and in no other warehouse or place whatsoever."

We, the undersigned Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the powers vested in us as aforesaid, do hereby approve of the following warehouses at the East India Docks, in the port of London, viz.

The warehouses in the Import Dock, on the South side, numbered from 1 to 7, and on the North side, numbered from 1 to 3; and the warehouses in the Export Dock, on the North side, numbered from 1 to 5;

For the reception and security of any goods, the produce of the East Indies, imported into the port of London, for the purpose of exportation only, under the rules, regulations, conditions, and securities of the said Act.

And we do hereby further direct, that such goods shall be kept separate from all other goods and merchandise whatever.
