The King has been pleased to give and grant unto the Honourable William Hill, of Redrice, in the county of Southampton, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Turin, and the Honourable and Reverend Richard Hill, Clerk, Rector of Berrington, in the county of Salop, and of Thornton, in the county palatine of Chester, second and third sons of the late Right Honourable Noel Baron Berwick, deceased, who was the only surviving son and heir of Thomas Hill, heretofore Thomas Harwood, late of Tern, in the county of Salop, and of Shenstone-Park, in the county of Stafford, Esquire, deceased, by Mary his wife, eldest daughter and co-heir of William Noel, Esquire, sometime Chief Justice of Chester, and one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, uncle of Edward the first Viscount Wentworth, which William Noel was the second son of Sir John Noel, of Kirkby-Mallory, in the county of Leicester, Baronet, who was the son and heir of Sir William Noel, of the same place, Baronet, by Margaret his wife, daughter and at length sole heir of John Lord Lovelace, of Hurley, by Anne his wife, daughter and at length heir of Thomas Wentworth, Earl of Cleveland, and Baron Wentworth, of Nettlesed, His royal licence and authority that they and their issue may, in compliance with an anxious wish frequently expressed by their aunt Maria Hill, late of Redrice aforesaid, heretofore the wife of Sir Brian Broughton Delves, Baronet, deceased, and afterwards wife of Henry Errington, Esquire, also deceased, take and use the surname of Noel, in addition to and before that of Hill, and also bear the arms of Noel, quarterly, with those of Hill and Harwood, Noel in the second quarter; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

NOTICE is hereby given by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, that all persons desirous of signifying their assent to receive £3 10s. per Centum Annuities, in lieu of £4 per Centum Annuities, directed to be paid off, in pursuance of a Resolution of the House of Commons, of the 24th February 1824, in the manner therein specified, must signify such assent on or before the 6th April 1824, to the Governor and Company of the Banks of England or of Ireland, according as the dividends may be payable.

Forms for expressing such assent have been sent to the several Country Bankers in Great Britain and Ireland, and may also be had of the Post-masters of every Market Town in Great Britain and Ireland, as well as at the Banks of England and Ireland respectively.

N. B. The assents addressed to the Banks of England and Ireland respectively, will be delivered free of postage; but care must be taken that they are put into the Post-Office in sufficient time to be delivered in London or in Dublin, as the case may be, on or before the 6th April 1824.
