

deceased, bearing date the 22d day of September 1801; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And His Majesty has also been pleased to order, that this His concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 20, 1824.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto John-Philipps-Allen Lloyd, of Mabus, in the county of Cardigan, of Dale-castle, in the county of Pembroke, and of Coedllys, in the county of Carmarthen, Esq. eldest son and heir of the late John-Allen Lloyd, of Mabus aforesaid, Esq. the son and heir apparent of John Lloyd, also of Mabus and of Dale-castle aforesaid, Esq. deceased, which last-mentioned John Lloyd was the eldest son and heir of James Lloyd, of Mabus aforesaid, Esq. and grandson of John Lloyd, of Foes-y-bleiddied, in the said county of Cardigan, Esq. by Mary his wife, sister of James Philipps, late of Penty-park, in the county of Pembroke, Esq. also deceased, His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may (in compliance with the last will and testament, and a codicil thereunto annexed, of the said James Philipps) take and use the surname of Philipps only, and that he and they may bear the arms of Philipps; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 19, 1824.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Matthews, of Gravesend, in the county of Kent, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

AFTER our hearty commendations—whereas by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to make more effectual provision for permitting goods imported to be secured in warehouses or other places, without payment of duty on the first entry thereof," it is enacted, "that it shall and may be lawful for the importer, proprietor, or consignee of any goods or merchandise whatsoever, and of what nature and kind soever, which shall be legally imported into the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to lodge and deposit or secure such goods and merchandises in warehouses or other approved places, without payment of any duty, either of Customs or Excise, at the time of the first entry of any such goods and merchandise;" And whereas by the said recited Act, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland are authorised, by warrant under their hands, or the hands of any three or more of them, from time to time to select, appoint, approve, and declare at what ports in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, and in what warehouses or places in such ports, goods and merchandise of every description, or goods and merchandise of any particular description, or any particular articles of merchandise, shall and may be lodged in warehouses, or otherwise secured, without payment of duty as aforesaid; every such warrant to be published three times in the London Gazette or Dublin Gazette respectively;

We, the undersigned Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the powers vested in us as aforesaid, do hereby approve of the Warehouses within the premises of the London Dock Company (except the warehouse No. 2 on the North side of the said Docks, and the warehouses appointed for the reception of tobacco and snuff); also the warehouses within the premises of the East India Dock Company (except the warehouse called the Auxiliary Warehouse No. 4, at the said Docks); also of the warehouses within the premises of the West India Dock Company (except the warehouse No. 10, nearest the Blackwall Basin, at the said Docks);

for the deposit of all goods (except prohibited goods, tobacco, and snuff) imported into the port of London, under the rules, regulations, conditions, and securities of the said Act.

For which this shall be your warrant.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, this 16th day of February 1824.
