Minorities.—Leasehold Premises.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Ellis, at Garraway's Coffee-House, Change-Alley, Cornhill, on Wednesday the 23d of June 1824, at Twelve o'Clock, by order of the Commissioners under a Commission of Bankruptcy awarded against John Edward Ebbs, Jeweller and Hardwareman, a Bankrupt;

A desirable leasehold house and excellent eligibly, No. 91, corner of the Circus, Minorities.

The premises are well adapted to carry on a wholesale or retail trade, and the house suitable for a respectable family, held for an unexpired term of 11 years and a half, at £63 per annum; and likewise a policy of assurance for £200, on the life of the said John Edward Ebbs.

The premises may be viewed, and printed particulars had on the premises of Messrs. Tooke and Carr, Holborn-Court; of Messrs. Winter and Williams, Bedford-Row; and of Mr. Ellis, 36, Fenchurch-Street.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery made in a certain Cause intitled Burnie against Anderson, and Burnie against Stewart, it was referred to

William Wingfield, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire who, at the death of William Milligan, late of Charlston, in the State of South Carolina, North America, Merchant, (which happened on the 22d day of September 1810), were the eldest son and the eldest daughter of John Sutherland, late of Fish-Street-Hill, in the City of London, Grocer, deceased, and who at the death of the said John Sutherland (which happened in or about the month of June 1817), were the eldest son and eldest daughter of the said John Sutherland; pursuant, therefore, to the said Order, any persons claiming to be such eldest son and eldest daughter of the said John Sutherland, living at the respective times hereinbefore-mentioned, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 3d day of July 1824, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Building, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their claims, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Wilkinson and another against Beall and others, the Creditors of John Dewsbury, late of Allertorpe, in the County of York, Gentleman, deceased (who died some time in the year 1794), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before James William Farrer Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to an Order of the Right Honourable the Lord High-Chancellor of Great Britain, made in the matter of James Southby (a Lunatic) bearing date the 10th day of April 1824, the issue, if any, of the marriage of the said James Southby, formerly of Shrewsbury, and now of Brace-Meole, in the County of Salop, Gentleman, and Elizabeth Southby, his late wife, formerly Elizabeth Hodges, Spinster (and who died on or about the 25th day of July 1819), are, on or before the 16th day of July next, to come in and prove their relationship before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, in his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order; and in pursuance of the said Order, any will or deed made or executed by the said Elizabeth Southby disposing of the settled fund, or any part thereof, mentioned in the settlement made previous to the marriage of the said James Southby and Elizabeth Hodges; bearing date the 6th day of March 1795, is to be produced and proved before the said Master, and in default thereof, all persons having or claiming any benefit or advantage under any such will or deed will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein John Jackson is the plaintiff, and Mary Cupit is the defendant, the Creditors of Thomas Brailsford, late of Bolsover, in the County of Derby Esq. (who died on the 2d day of April 1820), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause the Attorney-General v. Newson, the Creditors of Mary Wood, formerly of Hemming's-Row, and late of Saint Martin's-Lane, in the Parish of Saint Martin's in the Fields, in the County of Middlesex, Spinster (who died on or about the 30th day of November 1823), are, personally, or by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 1st day of July 1824; or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

ADAMSON'S CREDITORS.

Doncaster, June 7, 1824.

THE Creditors of William Adamson, late of Doncaster, Carver and Gilder, are requested to meet the Assignees of his estate and effects, at the Office of Mr. Frederick Fisher, Solicitor, in Doncaster, on Friday the 25th day of June instant, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, to take into consideration a claim made by an individual to prove a debt of £390 4s. 3d. against the insolvent's estate; to assent to or
