His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany has been pleased to appoint the Rev.

Thomas Nayler, B. A. of St. John's College, in the University of Cambridge, to be one of His Royal Highness's Domestic Chaplains.

Whitehall, January 4, 1825.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto George Smyth, of Dallam-tower, in the county of Westmoreland, and of Cumberland-place, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. (the husband of Sarah Smyth, formerly Sarah Wilson, one of the daughters of Daniel Wilson, late of Dallam-tower aforesaid, Esq. deceased), His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of the said Daniel Wilson, use, assume; bear, and subscribe the surname of Wilson instead of that of Smyth, and that he and they may also bear and use the arms of Wilson only; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, January 8, 1825.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Edmund Barneby, of Saltmarsh, in the county of Hereford, Esq. His royal licence and authority that he and his issue may, in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of William Higginson, late of Berners-street, in the parish of St. Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. deceased, take and use the surname of Higginson only, and bear the arms of Higginson quarterly with those of his own family, Higginson in the first quarter; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's-Office, otherwise His Majesty's said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, January 7, 1825.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of eight and ten o'clock on the night of Sunday the 26th of December last, a cottage and out-buildings, situate at Watereaton, in the parish of Penkridge, in the county of Stafford, the property of William Brearley, Esq. of Watereaton aforesaid, were maliciously set on fire and destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his ac-
