George Cornwall Legh, Esq. to be Captain. Dated 7th January 1825.

January 15, 1825.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence has been pleased to appoint the Reverend Edmund Jones Crawley, A. M. of the city of Bath, to be one of the Chaplains to His Royal Highness’s Household.

Whitehall, January 7, 1825.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of eight and ten o’clock on the night of Sunday the 26th of December last, a cottage and out-buildings, situate at Watereaton, in the parish of Penkridge, in the county of Stafford, the property of William Brearley, Esq. of Watereaton aforesaid, were maliciously set on fire and destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said William Brearley, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Admiralty-Office, December 30, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Wednesday the 2d day of February next, at eight o’clock in the morning.

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such
