

and passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for widening and improving the entrance into the City of London near Temple-bar, for making a more commodious street or passage at Snow-hill, and for raising, on the credit of the Orphan's Fund, a sum of money for those purposes;" and also of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 18th day of July next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 18th day of July next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the said sums, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Acts of the 18th and 35th Geo. 3, under the common seal of this city, some part of which are made payable to Benjamin Hopkins, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns, and the remainder thereof made payable to John Wilkes, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 18th day of July, and will severally declare such their intention, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, ten days previously to the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same (the usual holidays of the said Office excepted), I will, on the day expressed in such declaration, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz.

Forty-one bonds, of one hundred pounds each, numbered 910 to 950, both inclusive, at four and a half per cent per annum, and fourteen bonds, of five hundred pounds, numbered 1 to 14, both inclusive, at five per cent. per annum.

Richard Clark, Chamberlain.

Guildhall, January 29, 1825.

IN obedience to an order of the Committee, appointed by the Court of Common Council to carry into execution the several Acts of Parliament made and passed for the improvement of the River Thames, westward of London-bridge, in pursuance of an Act of the fiftieth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending, altering, and enlarging the powers of two Acts, passed in the fourteenth and seventeenth years of His said Majesty, in relation to the navigation of the River Thames, westward of London-bridge, within the liberties of the city of London, and for the further improvement of the said navigation;" and also of another Act of the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers of four Acts of His said Majesty for improving the navigation of the River Thames, &c." I do hereby give notice, that, between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 13th day of July next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 13th day of July next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the sum of £33,900, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Act of the fiftieth George the Third, under the common seal of this city, and made payable to me, my executors, administrators, or assigns (by endorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office, at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same, and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine, viz.

Eight bonds, of one hundred pounds each, numbered 13 to 20, both inclusive.

Richard Clark, Chamberlain.

Guildhall, January 29, 1825.

Grand Surrey Canal.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Company of Proprietors of the Grand Surrey Canal will pay off the whole of the Optional Loan Notes issued by them, and bearing interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum, on the 7th day of February 1826, after which time all interest thereon will cease.

Such Holders as shall be desirous to exchange their present notes for new notes, bearing interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum and not payable off until six months notice in the London Gazette, and shall signify such desire by writing, addressed to the Company's Secretary, at their said Office, on or before the 25th day of July next, may receive such new notes within twenty-one days from the time of signifying their assent to accept the same.

By order,

Samuel Travers, Secretary and Clerk to the Company.
