

licence and permission to be void and of none effect :

And His Majesty has also been pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, March 7, 1825.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Wilton Woodward, of Pershore, in the county of Worcester, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed Henry Hirst, jun. of Northallerton, in the county of York, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

GARRATT, Mayor.

A Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, held in the Inner Chamber of the Guildhall of the City of London, on Tuesday the 1st day of March in the year of our Lord 1825, and in the sixth year of the reign of George the Fourth, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, before John Garratt, Esq. Mayor of the City of London, Sir William Curtis, Bart. Sir Richard Carr Glynn, Bart. Sir John Perring, Bart. Sir James Shaw, Bart. Sir Charles Flower, Bart. Joshua Jonathan Smith, Esq. Sir Claudius Stephen Hunter, Bart. Samuel Birch, Esq. Matthew Wood, Esq. Christopher Smith, Esq. George Bridges, Esq. John Thomas Thorp, Esq. William Heygate, Esq. Robert Waithman, Esq. Aldermen of the said City; Newman Knowlly, Esq. Recorder of the said City; Robert Albion Cox, Esq. William Venables, Esq. Matthias Prime Lucas, Esq. and John Crowder, Esq. Aldermen of the said City; and Anthony Brown and John Key, Esqrs. Aldermen and Sheriffs of the same City.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for altering and amending two Acts, passed in the eleventh and thirty-third years of His late Majesty King George the Third, for consolidating, extending, and rendering more effectual the powers granted by several Acts of Parliament for making, enlarging, amending, and cleansing the vaults, drains, and sewers within the city of London, and liberties thereof, and for paving, cleansing, and lighting the streets, lanes, squares, yards, courts, alleys, passages, and places, and preventing and removing obstructions and annoyances within the same," this Court doth hereby appoint the places within the said city of London, and liberties thereof, for carts, wains, or waggons to stand and ply for hire, and doth, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, make orders to regulate the number of such carts, wains, or waggons to stand in the aforesaid places respectively, and the distances at which they shall stand one from another, and as to the times of their so standing or plying for hire, in manner following, that is to say,

This Court doth appoint the following places within the said city of London, and liberties thereof, for carts, wains, or waggons to stand and ply for hire (that is to say);

That part of Lower Thames-street which extends westward from Brewers'-quay to the east end of the Custom-house, on the south side of the same street.

That part of Lower Thames-street which extends westward from the east end of the Custom-house to the west end thereof, on the south side of the same street.

That part of Lower Thames-street which extends westward from the west end of the Custom-house to Botolph-wharf, on the south side of the same street.

That part of Lower Thames-street which extends westward from Botolph-wharf to Cox's-quay, on the south side of the same street.

That part of Lower Thames-street which extends westward from Cox's-quay to Fresh-wharf, on the south side of the same street.

That part of Saint Dunstan's-hill which extends southward from that part of the same hill which is situate opposite to the Work-house of the parish of Saint Dunstan in the East.

That part of Upper Thames-street which extends westward from the east corner of the same street at Fish-street-hill to the Steel-yard, on the south side of the same street.

That part of Upper Thames-street which extends westward from the Steel-yard to Brook's-wharf, on the south side of the same street.

Queenhithe.
That part of Upper Thames-street which extends westward from Brook's-wharf to Castle-street, on the south side of Upper Thames-street aforesaid.

That part of Upper Thames-street which extends westward from Castle-street to the west end of Earl-street, Blackfriars, on the south side of the same street.

That part of Old Fish-street which extends eighty yards westward from the east corner of the same street.

That part of Fleet-market which extends southward from the south side of Holborn-bridge, on the east side of the western carriage-way of the said market leading towards Fleet-street.

The north end of West Smithfield.

That part of Bread-street which extends southward from Watling-street, on the east side of Bread-street aforesaid.

That part of Bread-street which extends southward from Watling-street, on the east side of Bread-street aforesaid.

That part of Broad-street which extends from the east side of Austin-friars to the church of Saint Peter-le-poor, in the middle of the said street.

That part of Bishopsgate-street without which extends northward from Houndsditch to Widegate-alley, in the middle of the said street.

That part of Bishopsgate-street within which extends southward from Crosby-square to Thread-