Notice to the Creditors of Colin Gillies, Merchant, in Brechin, Forfarshire, under the first sequestration of his estate.

Brechin, March 11, 1825.
CHARLES GREENHILL, Esq. of Fearn, Trustee on the sequestrated estate aforesaid, hereby intimates, that his accounts as Trustee having been audited by the Commissioners, he has prepared full states of the affairs, and of the debts proved under the sequestration, with a scheme of division among the Creditors, which will be, for the inspection of all concerned, at the Office of William Anderson, Writer, in Brechin, until Tuesday the 19th day of April next, when a final dividend will be paid at said Office to the whole Creditors ranked on the estate.

NOTICE.

IN the petition presented to the Court of Session in name of Sir Archibald Edmonstone, of Duntreath, Bart. for carrying into effect an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His present Majesty, cap. 16, empowering the Judges of the Court of Session to sell such parts of the estates situated in the County of Stirling, which were entailed by Sir Archibald Edmonstone, of Duntreath, Bart. deceased, as shall be sufficient for the payment of the debts and burdens affecting the same. The Lord Medwyn, Ordinary, by interlocutor, dated the 8th March current, granted warrant for cognoscing and ascertaining the amount of the debts, provisions, legacies, and annuities of the said Sir Archibald Edmonstone, the entail, resting, owing, and affecting the said estates; and for that purpose remitted to Messrs. Patrick Cockburn and James Renton, Accountants, in Edinburgh, or either of them, to enquire into and take the several accounts specified in the prayer of the said petition, and to make up an account of what will remain of the said debts, provisions, legacies, and annuities of the said deceased Sir Archibald Edmonstone, after deducting therefrom the amount of the whole other funds and estates mentioned in the said petition that can or may be applied towards payment thereof, according to the evidence that may be laid before them, and to report the same to the Lord Ordinary quam primum.—Further appoints the Creditors to lodge their grounds of debt either in the hands of the Clerk of Court, or with the said Accountant, with oaths of verity thereon, and granted commission to any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace to take the depositions of the Creditors in Scotland, and to John Spottiswoode, Esq. Solicitor, in London, or to any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the said bounds to take the oath of the Creditors in England, to be reported the — day of — next, and granted diligence against witnesses and havers.
