SATURDAY, APRIL 30, 1825.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 25, 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the King will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 12th of May next, at two o'clock, to celebrate His Majesty's Birth-day.

N. B. The Knights of the several Orders will wear their Collars.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 25, 1825.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE COURT OF ST. JAMES'S.

THE Ladies who propose to attend the Drawing-Room, to be held on Thursday the 12th of May next, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Lady who is to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, on Wednesday the 11th of May, before twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation, it being His Majesty's command, that no presentations at the Drawing-Room shall hereafter be made by the Lord in Waiting, but by the Lady whose name, with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office.

No Lady can be received by His Majesty at the Drawing-Room, but in conformity to the above regulations.

The State Apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court until one o'clock.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Alexander Earl of Balcarres was duly elected and returned to be one of the sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and is since deceased; in order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his room, We do, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the second day of June next, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland, to sit and vote in the House of Peers of this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the room of the said Alexander Earl of Balcarres; deceased, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall then be present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both constituent and proxy being qualified according to law), and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into the High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We strictly charge and command that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns in Scotland, twenty-five days, at least, before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such election.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the twentieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, and in the sixth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of March 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the fourteenth of August last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 2d of February 1825.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to repeal certain duties of Customs in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof; to grant certain bounties on salted provisions and silk manufactures exported; and to make more effectual regulations for collecting the duties of Customs;" and by another Act, passed in the same session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to repeal the several duties and drawbacks of Customs chargeable and allowable in Ireland, on the importation and exportation of certain foreign and colonial goods, wares, and merchandise, and to grant other duties and drawbacks in lieu thereof, equal to the duties and drawbacks chargeable and allowable thereon in Great Britain;" His Majesty is empowered, by His Order in Council, to be published in the London and Dublin Gazettes, to direct, for the convenience of trade, and for the more economical collection of the revenue, that the management of all import duties should be placed wholly under the Commissioners of Customs, or wholly under the Commissioners of Excise; and whereas it is deemed expedient, that from and after the fifth of April next, the import duties upon the following articles, namely, coffee, cocoa, tobacco and snuff, pepper, spirits, wine, and all other foreign goods now subject upon importation, to duties collected by the Excise, except tea, should be placed wholly under the management of the Commissioners of Customs; His Majesty having taken the same into consideration is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare and direct, that all such duties upon the articles above enumerated shall be placed, and shall be under the sole management and authority of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, according to the provisions and directions of the said Acts, from and after the fifth day of April next, during the time that the aforesaid duties shall continue to be payable: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

Carlton-House, April 27, 1825.

This day Richard Rush, Esq. Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the United States of America, had a private audience of His Majesty to deliver his letters of recall; to which he was introduced by Earl Bathurst, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knight, Master of the Ceremonies.

Carlton-House, April 27, 1825.

CEREMONIAL of the Investiture of Admiral Sir Edward Thornbrough and Admiral Sir Eliab Harvey, with the Ensigns of Knights Grand Crosses of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath.

THE Knights Grand Crosses, attending in their mantles and collars, and the Officers of the Order, proceeded this day, soon after two o'clock, into the presence of the Sovereign, with the usual reverences, in the following order:

The Gentleman Usher of the Order, in his mantle, chain, and badge, bearing the scarlet rod.

Deputy Bath King of Arms, in the mantle, chain, and badge, with the sceptre of Bath, bearing the ribbands, badges, and stars of the Order, upon a crimson velvet cushion.

The Genealogist, in his mantle, chain, and badge.

KNIGHTS GRAND CROSSES.

The Earl of Rosslyn.

Sir Charles Morice Pole.

Lord Viscount Exmouth.

Sir William-Henry Clinton.

Sir Harry Calvert.

The Marquess of Anglesey.

Sir John Doyle. Sir William Keppel.

Lord Viscount Strangford.

Sir Richard-John Strachan.

Sir Alured Clarke.

The Dean of Westminster, Dean of the Order, in his mantle, chain, and badge.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, First and Principal Knight Grand Cross of the Order.

Then, by command of the Sovereign, Admiral Sir Edward Thornbrough was introduced into the Presence between the Earl of Rosslyn and Sir Charles-Morice Pole, the two Junior Knights Grand Crosses present, preceded by the Gentleman Usher of the Order; and, Deputy Bath King of Arms presenting the ribband and badge to His Royal Highness the Duke of York, the Senior Knight Grand Cross, His Royal Highness delivered the same to His Majesty, when, Sir Edward Thornbrough kneeling, the Sovereign was graciously pleased to put them over his right shoulder; the Admiral being thus invested, and, having received from the Sovereign the star of the Order, kissed His Majesty's hand and withdrew.

Then, Admiral Sir Eliab Harvey was, in like manner, introduced into the Presence and invested; and, having also received from the Sovereign the star of the Order, kissed His Majesty's hand and withdrew.

The Knights Grand Crosses were then called over, and the procession returned in the order above mentioned.

Carlton-House, April 27, 1825.

The King was this day pleased to invest Rear-Admiral Sir William Charles Fahie with the ensigns of a Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath.

By His Majesty's command, Rear-Admiral Sir William Charles Fahie was conducted, with the usual reverences, to His Majesty, preceded by Sir George Nayler (the Officer of Arms attendant upon the Knights Commanders), bearing, upon a crimson velvet cushion, the star, ribband, and badge of the second class of the Order.

The sword of state was thereupon delivered to His Majesty, the Rear-Admiral, kneeling, was knighted therewith, after which he had the honour to kiss His Majesty's hand.

Then Field-Marshal His Royal Highness the Duke of York, First and Principal Knight Grand Cross of the Order, having received from the Officer of Arms the ribband and badge of a Knight Commander, presented them to the Sovereign, and His Majesty was graciously pleased to invest Sir William Charles Fahie with the same. The Rear-Admiral having again had the honour to kiss the Sovereign's hand, and having received from His Majesty the star of a Knight Commander, retired.

Carlton-House, April 20, 1825.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood on Robert Moubray, Esq. (and not Robert Mowbray, Esq. as inserted in the Gazette of Tuesday last by mistake), of Cockairny, county of Fife, Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army, and one of the Deputy Lieutenants of the said county.

Carlton-House, April 27, 1825.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood on James Monk, Esq. late Chief Justice of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in the district of Montreal, in the province of Lower Canada, and a Member of His Majesty's Executive and Legislative Councils of the said province.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood also on Stephen Gaselee, Esq. one of the Justices of His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas.

Commissions signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County Palatine of Chester.

John Ryle, Esq. (and not John Peyle, Esq. as inserted in the Gazette of Saturday last by mistake), to be Deputy Lieutenant. Dated 8th April 1825.

Royal Cheshire Militia.

Harry Mainwairing, Gent. to be Esqign. Dated 15th April 1825.

Whitehall, April 27, 1825.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Peter Hawker, of Stroud, in the county of Gloucester, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, April 20, 1825.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Jackson, of Rastrick, near Halifax, in the county of York, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Navy-Office, April 21, 1825

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st January to the 31st March 1825, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 2d, 3d, and 4th of May, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 5th, 6th, 9th, 10th, and 11th of May, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 12th and 13th of May, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, the said Attornies are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st of March last, will commence paying on the 2d of May; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed. G. Smith.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

WHEREAS a writ of ad quod damnum hath been issued out of the High Court of Chancery, directed to the Sheriff of Middlesex, commanding the said Sheriff, that by the oath of honest and lawful men of his county, by whom the truth of the matter may be best known, he diligently enquire whether or no it will be to the damage or prejudice of our Sovereign Lord the King, or any other, if our said Lord the King should grant to Richard Henry Cox, Esq. of Hillingdon-house, in the parish of Hillingdon, in the county of Middlesex, a licence that he the said Richard Henry Cox may enclose a certain public footway leading out of the public highway on the southern side of Northolt or Uxbridge-common, in the said parish of Hillingdon, over land in the said parish of Hillingdon, lately belonging to Felecia Elizabetha Horne, widow, deceased, but now belonging to the said Richard Henry Cox, into another public footway leading from Hillingdon-End, to Little Hillingdon, in the parish Hillingdon, which said footway so to be enclosed is of the length of three hundred and seventy-eight yards or thereabouts, and of the breadth of four feet or thereabouts, and if it will be to the damage or prejudice of our said Lord the King, or any other, then to what damage or to what prejudice of our said Lord the King, and to what damage, or to what prejudice of any other, and of whom, and how, and in what manner.

Notice is therefore hereby given, that the said Sheriff of Middlesex will make the inquisition by the said writ directed, at the White Horse Inn, Uxbridge, in the said county of Middlesex, on Wednesday the 18th day of May next, at the hour of twelve o'clock at noon of the same day.—Dated this 23d day of April 1825.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Bottrill v. Popple, it was ordered, that it should be referred to William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court who was or were the next of kin of Ann Elgin, late of Stillingfleet, in the County of York, Spinster, deceased, the testatrix in the said Decree named (who died in or about the month of May 1822), living at her death, and whether any of them are since dead, and if dead, who is or are their personal representative or representatives.—All persons claiming to be such next of kin of the said Ann Elgin, or the representative of such of them as are since dead, are forthwith to come in and make out and prove their kindred or representation before the said Master Courtenay, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Palmer against Steward, it was referred to William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court, whether Richard Coleman Palmer, in the testator's will described as the son of the testator's brother, William Danby Palmer, is living or dead, and if dead when he died, and whether he was living at the time of the death of the testator's grand-daughter, Elizabeth Palmer (who died on or about the 7th day of July 1821), and if he was living at the time of her death, and is since dead, who is or are his legal personal representative or representatives.—The said Richard Coleman Palmer belonged to the Ship Hibberts, of London, John Frederick Butcher, late Master, and deserted from that Ship at Port-Maria, in the Island of Jamaica, in or about the month of March 1801, and was then about 18 years of age.—The said Richard Coleman Palmer if living, or if he died since the said 7th day of July 1821, his personal representative or representatives is or are forthwith to come in and make out and prove his or their kindred or representation before the said Master Courtenay, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof all such persons will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Ruxton against Fitzherbert, the Creditors of Fitzherbert Richards, late of the City of Bath, in the County of Somerset, Esq. deceased (who died in the month of May 1811), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Nixon against Nixon, the Creditors of Thomas Nixon, late of New Ormond-Street, in the County of Middlesex, and of Weston-under-Pengard, in the County of Hereford, Esq. deceased, (who died in or about the month of September 1817), are, on or before the 4th day of June next, to come in and prove their debts before James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Philip Castel Sherard and others are the plaintiffs, and Sarah Haughton Sherard and others are defendants, the Creditors of Philip Castle Sherard, late of Upper Harley-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. (who died on the 29th of November 1814), are to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 1st day of June 1825, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Cranston against Green, the Creditors of William Green, late of Ringmer, in the County of Sussex, Esq. deceased (who died on or about the 5th day of March 1820), are, on or before the 1st day of June 1825, to come in and prove their debts before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Hayward v. Lewis, the Creditors and Legatees of the Right Honourable Magdalene Countess Dowager of Dysart, late of Piccadilly, in the County of Middlesex, and of the Isle of Wight, deceased (who died in the month of February 1823), are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts, and claim their legacies, before John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Sharpe against Sharpe, the Creditors of Catherine Sharpe, late of Brancaster, in the County of Norfolk, Widow, deceased, (who died on or about the 17th of April 1820), are forthwith to come in before James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their debts, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Sharpe against Sharpe, the Creditors of Richard England Sharpe, late of Brancaster, in the County of Norfolk, Gentleman, deceased (who died on or about the 15th of July 1814), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Baker v. Baker, the Creditors and Legatees of William Baker, late of Bayfordbury, in the County of Hertford, Esq. deceased (who died in the month of January 1824), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 6th day of June 1825, to come in before John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their debts, and claim their legacies, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Wynn Wingate, in the City of Bath, in the County of Somerset, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 7th day of May next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Office of Mr. John Phyzick, No. 6, Saint James's Parade, in the said City of Bath, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of all, or any part of the stock in trade, goods, furniture and effects of the said Bankrupt, by public auction or private contract, or by valuation, or otherwise, upon such credit, or upon such security as he shall think proper; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee employing a proper person (at the expence and risk of the said Bankrupt's estate), to collect, get in and receive the outstanding debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate, and to the said Assignee making such remuneration in respect thereof as he shall deem fair and reasonable; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part to the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, awarded and issued forth against John Frederick Haldy and William Norcott, of Castle-Street, Leicester-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Wine-Merchants, and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 9th day of May next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all, or any part of the stock in trade, and wines of the said Bankrupts, now bonded in the London Docks, or in the said Bankrupts' cellars, either by auction or by private contract, or by appraisement and valuation, and together or in lots, and for ready money, or upon credit, or upon such securities as the said Assignees shall think most advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees allowing to the said Bankrupts, or either of them, such reasonable sum of money as he shall think fit, either as a compensation for the services and assistance the said Bankrupts, or either of them, may render to the said Assignees, or to the accountant, or other person who may be employed in the settlement or adjustment of their affairs, or for the necessary support of themselves and families, during the working of the Commission against them, as to the Assignee shall seem meet; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying to the clerks or servants of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, out of the said Bankrupts' estate, such arrears of salary or wages as may be due to them at the time of issuing the Commission, or to the said Assignee compounding or adjusting the same as he shall in his discretion think reasonable and just; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee giving up to the Bankrupts, the whole or such part of the household furniture, plate, linen and effects as he shall think fit, without their paying any sum for the same, or to the said Assignee selling the same or any part thereof, to the said Bankrupts, or either of them, upon such security as to the said Assignee shall seem fit, at a fair valuation; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee agreeing with the landlord or landlords of the said Bankrupts' premises, for the letting, selling or disposing of the same, or to the delivery up to him of the said premises, upon the said Assignee abandoning the same; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee adjusting, settling or compounding any debt or debts, sum or sums of money due or owing to the said Bankrupts' estate, or submitting to arbitration any question, difference, matter or dispute concerning the same; or to the said Assignee compounding, prosecuting or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupts' joint or separate estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee appointing an accountant or any other person to make out the accounts; and get in the outstanding debts of the said Bankrupts, and making him a reasonable allowance in respect thereof; and on other special affairs.
