ALL persons indebted to the estate of Mr. Thomas Samuel Firmin, late of Weathersfield, in the County of Essex, Shopkeeper, deceased, are requested forthwith to pay the amount of their respective debts to Mr. Thomas Smith, of Steeple-Bumpsted, in the said County of Essex, Shopkeeper, one of the Executors, or to Mr. Decimus Sewell, of Halsted, in the said County, Solicitor; and such persons as may have any claim against the estate of the said Mr. Firmin are requested to send the amount thereof to the said Executor, or Mr. Sewell, in order that the same may be immediately discharged.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Whereas William Wadds the elder, late of Leicester, Fishmonger, deceased, did in his lifetime enter into a contract for the purchase of the Rutland Arms Hotel, in Horse-Fair-Street, in Leicester, and also into another contract for the purchase of the warehouse and buildings adjoining thereto, but died intestate without completing the same, leaving William Wadds, his eldest son and heir at law, to whom the property descended, subject to the payment of his father's debts; and whereas the said Wadds, the Son, became insolvent, without having completed the purchase, and was discharged under the Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and the beneficial interest in the contracted property has become ultimately vested in Robert Lee, of Leicester, Cornfactor, as Assignee for the benefit of Creditors, notice is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of William Wadds the elder and William Wadds the younger will be held at the Rutland Arms Hotel, at Five o'Clock, on Thursday the 9th day of June instant, in order to decide whether the contracts of William Wadds the elder, for the purchase of those premises, shall be carried into execution, agreeable to the terms comprised in the respective agreement, or shall be abandoned.

By order,
ROBERT BOND, Solicitor.

To be resold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Foden against Peake, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Hall's Arms Inn, Tern-Hill, near Market-Drayton, in the County of Salop, on Monday the 4th day of July 1825, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, in three lots;

A very desirable freehold estate, called Rose-Hill Estate, situate in the Parish of Drayton-in-Hales, in the County of Salop, late the property of Thomas Peake, a Bankrupt, consisting of a capital dwelling-house, with out buildings and several pieces of arable, meadow, and pasture land, containing about 82A. 3R. 16P.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Williams and White, and Messrs. Benbow, Alban, and Benbow, Solicitors, Lincoln's Inn, London; Messrs. Keen, Solicitors, Stafford; and at the principal Inns in Stafford, Market-Drayton, Newport, and Eccleshall.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Sir Charles Morgan, Baronet, and another are plaintiffs, and Sir Edwin Baynton Sandys, Baronet, and others are defendants, whereby it is referred to John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to take an account of the incumbrances on the mortgaged estate in question in the said Cause, except the incumbrances dated the 9th and 10th days of February 1808, made in favour of the defendant, Thomas Brooks, and which said mortgaged estate consists of these lordships or manors of Chadlington, Over-Court, Nether-Court, and Aistrain's Farm, with their appurtenances, situate in Chadlington, Clifton, and Shortham, in the Parish of Charlbury, in the County of Oxford, and other the estates of the said Sir Edwin Baynton Sandys, in the said County of Oxford.—All persons who have any charges or incumbrances on the said estates, are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove the same before the said Master, Mr. Dowdeswell, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Jones against Ross, the Creditors of James Jones, late of Bishopsgate-Street, within the City of London, Perfumer, deceased, are, on or before the 2d day of July next, to come in and prove their debts before John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Jones against Ross, all persons claiming to be next of kin of James Jones, late of Bishopsgate-Street, within the City of London, Perfumer (who died in the month of April 1822), living at the time of his decease, or to be personal representatives of any such next of kin who have since died, are forthwith to come in and prove their claims before John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree in Chancery of the Court of Great Sessions for the several Counties of Flint, Denbigh, and Montgomery, made in a Cause between Thomas Hughes and another complainants, and Anne Price and others, defendants, the Creditors of John Price, late of Denbigh, in the County of Denbigh (who died on or about the 11th day of November last), are peremptorily to come in before John Cox, Gentleman, the Registrar of the said Court, on or before the first day of the Great Session for the said County of Denbigh, and prove their debts; or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
