ALL persons having any claims or demands against the estate of George Redmond Hulbert, Esq. of Aston-Lodge, in the County of Derby, deceased, late Secretary to Admiral Sir John Borlase Warren, Bart. K. C. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships on the American and West India Stations, are desired to send the particulars thereof to John Spice Hulbert, Esq. of Portsmouth, or to Mr. George Law, 10, New-Square, Lincoln's-Inn.—All letters must be sent free of postage.—Dated the 9th day of September 1825.

HEIR AT LAW WANTED.

THE Heir at Law of Charles Warden, late of Hackney, in the County of Middlesex, Master-Mariner, deceased, may hear of something to his, or her advantage, by application to Messrs. Hilliard and Hastings, No. 9, Gray's-Inn, London, or to Messrs. Jones and Waddington, Solicitors, Usk, Monmouthshire.—The said Charles Warden was the only sur-ving Son of Church Warden, formerly of the Parish of St. Martin's, in the Town of Birmingham, who married about the year 1764, and afterwards settled as a Cutler in the City of Bristol, where he died.

ASSEMBLY-HOUSE, HIGHGATE.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Prickett, on the premises, on Wednesday the 14th of September instant, at One o'Clock, by direction of the Assignees of Mr. William Harvey, a Bankrupt;

The lease of the old established and highly respectable Coffee-House, Tavern, and Assembly-House, with the brewery, livery-stables, and premises, together with the tolls payable at the gate, producing a considerable daily income in ready money.

May be viewed, and particulars obtained on the premises; Queen's Head, Finchley; Red Lion, Barnet; Green Man; Hadley; Holly Bush Tavern, Hampstead; Peacock, Islington; and of Mr. Prickett, Highgate, and No. 41, Castle-Street, Holborn.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, made in the matter of Benjamin Burd, a Lunatic, with the approbation of Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Wednesday the 19th day of October next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, in three lots;

A desirable leasehold estate, consisting of five dwelling-houses, situate in Windmill-Street, Lambeth, in the County of Surrey, let to tenants at will, at rents amounting to £116 per annum, and held under leases, of which above 46 years are unexpired, and subject to ground rents, amounting to £12 18s. per annum; and a small copyhold estate, comprising a messuage in Windmill-Street aforesaid, held of the Manor of Lambeth, and let on a building lease, of which about 50 years are unexpired, at a ground rent of £2 per annum, and subject to the customary fines and heriots on death or alienation, and to a small quit rent.

Particulars of sale may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Mr. Ralph Lindsay, Solicitor, 16, Saint Thomas's-Street, Southwark; and of Mr. Walter Kidpath, Solicitor, 22, Saint Mary-at Hill, Lower Thames-Street.

WHEREAS Francis Dorsett, late of Oswestry, in the County of Salop, and of Plas-Ucha, in the County of Denbigh, Esq. by his will, dated the 3d of August 1779, devised all his freehold messuages, lands, and hereditaments, in the Counties of Salop, Denbigh, and Montgomery, and all other his real estates, unto and to the use of Clopton Prius, Thomas Vernon, and David Roberts, and their executors, administrators, and assigns, for the term of 500 years, upon trust, by sale or mortgage of the said estates, or a competent part thereof, or by sale of timber therefrom, to raise and pay all such sums of money as with his personal estate would be sufficient to satisfy all his debts, legacies, and funeral charges, and the expences of executing the said trusts: And whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Birkett against Wingfield, it is referred to John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and certify to the Court whether there are any and what trusts of the said term remaining unsatisfied.—All persons claiming to be Creditors or Legatees of the said Testator, or to have any other claims under the trusts of the said term, are forthwith to come in and prove their claims before the said Master Harvey, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, in order that they may not be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Robert Plummer and others are plaintiffs, and George Selby and others are defendants, the Creditors of William Hudson, late of Stoke-Newington, in the County of Middlesex, and of Cow-Lane, in the City of London, Ironmonger (who died on or about the 20th of February 1820), are, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 10th day of November 1825, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
